

River Hides Fate Of Elderly Couple

Colorado Rapids Swamp Pleasure Boat; Man, Wife Saved but Search Goes on for Parents of Survivor

Moab, Utah — A couple plucked from a rugged river's bank waited today for search efforts to disclose the fate of the man's mother and father. They last saw the elderly couple bobbing away through dangerous Colorado river rapids after their pleasure boat capsized.

Missing and presumably drowned are a 65-year-old Frank A. Rich and his wife, 64, of Lakewood Village, Calif.

Rescued from awesome Cataract canyon yesterday were Dr. Delbert F. Rich, 41, Cedar City, Utah, and his 35-year-old wife.

"I managed to get my wife

Say Motorman Failed to Apply Brakes in Time

Link Lapse to Crash of Speeding Elevated Trains

Chicago — The failure of a veteran motorman to apply his brakes soon enough was the major cause of the crash of two crowded elevated trains during the rush hour yesterday morning, says a Chicago Transit authority spokesman.

About 125 persons were taken to hospitals after one jammed train plowed into the rear of another stalled because of a tie-up further down the line. About 800 persons were passengers in the two loopbound 6-car trains from the west side.

Lost Direction

Dr. Rich said he and his family were cruising near the river junction early Sunday and noticed another boat which seemed to be in trouble.

"We stopped to give them assistance. While we were working we apparently lost our sense of direction and when we started out again, we went the wrong way."

"Before we realized it, the boat was in the rapids it was swamped. . . overturned. . . capsized."

Both couples wore life jackets, Rich said they leaped to the gunwales when they realized the swirling rapids would capsize the boat. Then they were thrown out.

Family Quits Tent Home In Ravine

Los Angeles — Manuel Arechiga gazed sadly at the rubble that was his family's home for 36 years. He sighed.

"When one is old, what does one need but to eat?" he asked in Spanish, watching his chickens scamper over the Chavez Ravine hillside.

"For me alone it is nothing to leave my home. But I still cannot have tranquility. Because this home was for my children. And to take it away from us, an injustice has been done."

"I feel great sentiment over this injustice. I will win my fight."

The Arechigas have been fighting condemnation of their home for eight years. They moved into a tent amid the attracted national attention May 8 when the couple, their children and grandchildren were evicted from their

Some Doubt

Question if Woman Was Actually Bitten by Shark

Indian Rocks Beach, Fla. — 60 also of Milwaukee was a shark or a barnacle with her daughter at the time. That seems to be the question at this resort community a few miles south of Clearwater.

Mrs. June Goldback said a shark attacked her while she swam at the beach Saturday. She suffered scratches on her foot and hand and thigh.

Beach residents scoffed at the shark story, but Bob Robinson of Muncie, Ind., had another story to tell. He said he saw the 37-year-old Milwaukee woman struggling in the water and the fish swim away.

Believes Story

"I actually believe she would have been pulled under," he said. "If her mother hadn't come to the rescue, Mrs. Clara Winkler, about

Romanian Pair Press Hunt for Two Airmen

Gave Aid to Fliers After Ploesti Raid; Wartime Ordeal Fosters Trip to U. S.

New York — It's a big, remembered the name of the country in which to try to locate a couple of American airmen of World War II.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Horovitz, who have been trying a long time, keep on hoping. They have a lot of gratitude to express.

The couple feel that their quest may prove easier now, because they have finally reached this country themselves after years of effort.

They arrived yesterday from France on the liner Atlantic. The story they had to tell emphasized anew how friendship and kindness can pierce the world's borders in time of stress.

Ploesti Raid

One day in 1944, three fliers turned up at the couple's home in Bucharest, Romania. Two were American, one was British. They had been shot down in a raid on the Ploesti oil fields, taken prisoner of war and then escaped from their captors.

Mr. and Mrs. Horovitz provided refuge in their home until the three could continue their escape from Romania. In 1949, the couple also fled the communist-dominated country and made their way to France.

In doing so, they had to destroy all their personal papers including a letter of thanks received after the war from the American fliers.

In France the refugees could not get working papers and applied for visas to the United States, a difficult job for those from behind the Iron Curtain.

Mr. and Mrs. Horovitz started trying to get in touch with the American fliers but had forgotten their names. All they could remember of them was this:

From New York

One was 27 or 28 years old in 1944 and had two daughters, one of whom was born while he was overseas. He was blond and from New York. He had been commander of the bomber shot down over the oil fields. The other was dark, much younger and was from Detroit. They had embarked on their mission from a base in Italy.

Despite appeals in the United States the fliers never fluted were a runner up with were located. But the couple 45,000

Physician Agrees

The physician who treated Mrs. Goldback said he told her at the time the scratches "probably had been caused by barnacles."

Two men fishing from a boat caught two 4-foot sharks about 400 feet from the spot at which Mrs. Goldback was swimming. Their catch was made a few minutes after the attack was supposed to have occurred.

Convicts Turn to Self Mutilation In Carolina Camp

Raleigh, N. C. — Eight tough, long-term convicts at a prison camp for incorrigibles chose self mutilation as a means of registering complaints yesterday.

State Prisons Director William Bailey said three cut off a part of their little fingers, and five injured themselves with sledge hammers.

"They wanted television, store privileges and they fussed about the food," Bailey said.

The incident occurred at Ivy Bluff camp in Caswell county. The men were brought to central prison hospital here for treatment.

Only 35 to 40 men are confined at Ivy Bluff, a camp for convicts who fail to conform to prison regulations. The men work in a rock quarry, Bailey

Claims Defaults on Projects Cost FHA Over $16 Million

Sen. Harry Byrd Says One in Four Housing Units in Money Trouble

Washington — Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) said today defaults and foreclosures on 17 military housing projects have cost the federal housing administration $16,000,000.

Eight other projects out of 110 under study, Byrd said, are in financial difficulty with $14,900,000 still owed on federally insured mortgages. The loss to the government on these has not been determined, he said.

The studies are being made by the senate-house committee on reduction of nonessential federal expenditures, which Byrd heads.

FHA Mortgages

A spokesman for the committee said the senator has turned up evidence that FHA mortgages totaling more than $14,900,000 still owed on federally insured mortgages. The loss to the government on these has not been determined, he said.

Byrd mentioned no such gain in his prepared statement. Nor did he make any charges of wrongdoing.

He merely announced he is investigating losses already incurred or impending on 110 military housing projects built by private enterprise and federally insured under terms of the Wherry act of 1949. That law expired in 1955. None of the 110 projects has been taken over by the military departments.

One in Four

"Twenty-seven—or approximately one in every four—of the 110 projects not taken over by the military departments had been foreclosed or were in default or other financial difficulty," Byrd said in reporting on a study covering figures up to last Dec. 31.

Mortgages on the projects were covered by $32,900,000 of insurance issued by the FHA, Byrd stated. He said the FHA as of Dec. 31, had foreclosed the mortgages on 11 of the projects, eight others were in default on their mortgages, and eight more were "in other financial difficulty."

commented, "men will do anything to get away from there."

Byrd said the state bureau of investigation will look into the matter.

John Reeve President Of Valley Scout Council

10 Per Cent Increase in Membership Cited; Plan 50th Scouting Year Program

John P. Reeve, executive vice president of Appleton Coated Paper company, was elected president of the Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, at the organization's annual meeting at the Elks club Monday night. About 60 council leaders from five counties attended.

F. A. Meythaler, Appleton, was reelected treasurer. Dexter Wolfe, Appleton, was elected to another term as scout commissioner. Reelected as vice presidents were Chris Larsen and L. R. Watson, both of Appleton; John Whitney, Neenah; and Paul West, Kaukauna.

Robert A. Olen, Clintonville, was named a vice president. Service Award: Reeve, active in civic, fraternal and church affairs, is a former recipient of the Dis-the Lawrence College Alumni association, a past member of the board of the YMCA, a Lawrence college trustee, and a Rotarian.

He has served as a member of the Valley Council executive board and was a vice president last year.

In a 2-hour business meeting after the dinner, annual reports on many scouting activities were presented and articles of incorporation were amended and approved.

Retiring President Oliver Wordell, Brillion, cited a 10 per cent increase in Boy Scout membership from 3,857 on Dec. 31, 1956, to 4,256 on the same date in 1958.

Revitalized Program: Wordell said the council "had revitalized the entire scouting program." An increase in summer attendance at Gardner Dam camp was an example, Wordell pointed out, of the council's growing activities.

One of the major council projects, Wordell commented, was hiring a full-time camp ranger.

Meythaler, presenting the annual treasurer's report, said the council was "quite healthy" as far as its budget was concerned.

Fourth In Area: L. R. Watson, Appleton, in his report of the Region 7 meeting held in Chicago several weeks ago, said the Valley Council, with 4,256 active scouts, ranked fourth in Area A, which comprises Marquette, Green Bay, Fond du Lac, Manitowish, Oshkosh, Wausau, Sheboygan and Appleton as headquarter cities.

Speakers Praise K of C Work at Monday Dinner

Supreme Knight, Bishop Ask for Promotion of Faith

LaCrosse — Luke E. Hart, supreme knight, and Bishop John P. Treacy, LaCrosse, praised the work of the Knights of Columbus at a Monday night banquet at the auditorium.

Between 650 and 700 persons crowded into the auditorium to hear speeches and witness the presentation of the Dr. Charles W. Henney medalion award. Hart praised Harold J. Lamboley, supreme advocate, and former Green Bay judge. He said Lamboley was a former Wisconsin resident who moved to New Haven, Conn., and "gave up his life in Wisconsin to do this work for the Knights of Columbus."

"Wisconsin can be proud of his excellent record in working for the order in New Haven. He has tremendous responsibilities in his job as advocate and is doing a tremendous job for us," he said.

Hart was introduced by Lamboley. Hart told the group about the "mass advertising program" initiated by himself, and supported so well by other knights, that has helped spread the Catholic faith throughout the nation and the world. "This program has been called by others one of the greatest that the Knights of Columbus have ever undertaken," he said, "and it has done much to dispel rumors and falsities regarding the church."

Bishop Treacy also praised the Wisconsin knights and told them "we must meet the challenge of communism and go out and sell Christ and all that stands for instead of sitting around the club house in an over luxurious age. You must give Catholic Christian leadership where it is needed, profess the faith and take time to work harder for the church."

Daniel Dewane, Manitowish, Columbia Squires oratorical contest winner, spoke on "youth and respect for the clergy." He said the youth of today are the clergy of tomorrow and that "we must be good and great so we have good and great clergy tomorrow." He said that the respect between youth and clergy must "be reciprocal."

Hon. James H. Levi, state deputy, presented the medalion awards to Max Johnson, Green Bay; Frank Kubisiak, Wisconsin Rapids; Hon. William C. O'Connell, Beaver Dam and A. L. Nussbaum, Madison. Albert J. O'Melia, Rhinelander, was unable to attend because of illness in the family.

The Knights of Columbus in Wisconsin today announced the names of 10 high school students awarded $1,000 scholarships to further their education.

The winners were George F. Bernauer, Madison; Judith in a fit of rage has been charged with first degree manslaughter.

The charge was placed yesterday after the boy, Michael Sorce, died at a hospital.

Charles J. Goebel, 28, assistant professor of physics at the University of Rochester, told police he became enraged when he saw the youngster pushing and teasing his son, George, 3, last Saturday. Goebel said he raised the Sorce boy over his head and dashed him to the ground. A stick the boy was holding penetrated his head through the left eye.

The 'Beer Bar' Controversy

Controversy over "beer bars" has developed in many Wisconsin communities recently. State law prohibits the sale of wines and hard liquors to anyone under 21 years of age and furthermore prohibits such minors from even entering the premises of a place where such drinks are sold. Young people 18 or over, however, are permitted to buy beer and to consume it on the premises; this has led to the establishment of teenage bars or "beer bars" which limit their business to beer and thus it is permissible for the 18-to-21-year-olds to patronize them.

Wisconsin also has a local option law under which any municipality or county can prohibit the sale of beer to this group or, if it wishes, prohibit the sale of any alcoholic drink within its borders. Recently a number of communities, including Neenah, have taken advantage of local option to prohibit the sale of beer to the 18-to-21 group. A similar ban is proposed for Appleton.

Arguments favoring the ban on teenage bars are similar to those that favor full prohibition, with a few special twists. Underlying all such arguments is an attitude that drinking itself is immoral, or at least leads to immorality. It is said that the beer bars become hangouts for young toughs, that drinking beer increases their bravado and decreases what little sense of responsibility they may have, that making such places legal encourages other young people to patronize them and they then come under the influence of the undesirables. It is argued that young people who have not reached the legal drinking age can and do become intoxicated on beer, and that when so intoxicated they tend to commit irresponsible acts and even crimes. The phrase "juvenile delinquency" often is heard in debates on this subject.

Undoubtedly there is some merit in these arguments yet the people who advance them offer only the same tired old solution — prohibition. For make no mistake about it, that is what we are talking about. To be sure, it is a prohibition that would apply to only a relatively small segment of our population, and it would affect that segment only until its members reached the age of 21. But it is prohibition nevertheless and, without question, will bring with it the evils of prohibition, the most important of which is wholesale evasion of the law.

What these people are saying is that young men and women most of whom are beyond high school age, who are eligible to serve in their country's armed forces, who are permitted to marry and have families and a great many of whom hold down full-time jobs must not be permitted to drink the mildest alcoholic beverage we have (and one of Wisconsin's proudest products) — beer. Yet at the magic age of 21 these same young men and women suddenly can be trusted to drink not only beer but wine and whiskey and gin and anything else they want. What is proposed is that we divide all people into two classifications — those 21 and over and those under 21 — and permit the one group almost complete freedom with respect to alcoholic beverages while placing the other group under complete prohibition.

Many adults cannot handle alcoholic beverages — the latest total of drunken drivers in this area as published on the Post-Crescent's front page is 105 — yet only a diehard Dry would suggest that because of this minority we should return to the tragicomic nonsense that was the Eighteenth amendment. Yet because a small minority of young adults drink too much beer and occasionally get into serious trouble we are told that the majority of our young adults who are decent and law-abiding should be prohibited from enjoying the well-known merits of a cold glass of brew.

Young people have to grow up sometime; just as parents cannot keep a young toddler in a play pen until he is 10 or prevent a girl from wearing lipstick until she is 20, it is foolish to tell our high school graduates, college students, young servicemen and jobholders that they are too young to sit with their friends in a teenage tavern. We think the Wisconsin system is a good one, for it permits these young people to learn how to drink alcoholic beverages by starting out at 18 with beer and graduating at 21 to those that are more difficult to handle. To be sure, there are probably some youngsters who could be trusted with hard liquor at 16 just as there are some adults 40 or 50 or even 60 who cannot be trusted even with a glass of beer. There is no magic age, but we think the legislature has done as well as it could to fix the ages at which a majority of people should be permitted to drink.

Most of all, we do not think Appleton's young adults deserve this slap in the face. The great majority of them are fine young men and women of whom we can be and should be very proud; treating them all as young punks because a very few of them deserve that description is a very unfair proposition.

Foreign Aid to Latin America

Fidel Castro's virtual demand that the United States foot the bill for a $30 billion development plan for Latin America, including an annual allotment to each country with no strings attached, is bound to be popular south of the border. Ever since the Marshall Plan was inaugurated, countries in this hemisphere have felt and acted like neglected orphans. The United States would do well to continue a long range plan without huffing and puffing about ingratitude.

Our financial aid to South and Central American countries has been less than to Europe, the Middle East and Asia because we saw more danger of communism in those parts and perhaps because those lands had more effective lobbyists in Washington. Our foreign aid is a part of our foreign policy which should be for the benefit of the United States. Certainly humanitarian elements have come into the picture and are, in a way, responsible for the confusion in our foreign policy. We do not seem to be able to decide whether we give aid to help individuals in need or to raise economic standards so that lands will not quite so readily give in to communism.

This confusion is partly responsible for the sort of blackmail which Castro now is attempting in imitation of Nehru. Tito and even close western supporters. The spectre of Nasser can always be held up as what might happen if we turn down another Aswan Dam. But the very fact that we do give foreign aid makes the situation unavoidable. Other countries need cash, they always want more than we can or are willing to give, they use the threat of turning to the Soviet Union to pry more from us.

And here the United States must take a firm stand. Our assistance must be based on sound money policies — policies which struggling nations will not in many cases understand or accept. We must expect renewed howls of Uncle Shylock, jealousy of the standard of living in the United States, threats of looking elsewhere and even the snatching of our aid with one hand and the acceptance of Russian aid with the other. We must simply accept the fact that no matter how many billions we pour into other countries, the matter of winning them to our side is only partly through economic ties. We cannot forget the political element.

Our foreign aid should be inextricably tied to the other aspects of our foreign policy including the moral support, not merely of status quo regimes, but of anti-communist elements. This is dangerous because the pride of small, impotent countries is great and the hint of political manipulation by the United States often can not be tolerated, publicly at least. But we must be realistic and we must expect other peoples to be so, too. If we have no political influence in a nation, our financial assistance is likely to be just so much good money down the drain. As our gold reserves are lowered in this country — and they dropped alarmingly during the last year partly because we are buying more and investing more in other lands than they are over here — the value of our currency in the opinions of other peoples will slump. To keep it strong we must resist inflationary pressures including the hasty, ill-advised and inefficient grants or loans to other nations who have dangerous economic habits themselves.

Castro is trying to mend fences in Latin America which he damaged by criticizing some leaders. He may be out to be the Nasser of the Caribbean. But let us not sign any blank checks because of his rantings or expect to be regarded any longer as Santa Claus anywhere in the world. The strings on our foreign aid need not be too apparent but they should be as strong as steel.

Urban Population Problem Becoming Quite Acute

From a Legislative Council Report

The urban problem in Wisconsin, outside of the Milwaukee area, has not reached the magnitude of that in states which contain the largest population concentrations. However, the problem is becoming more acute in Wisconsin, and various communities are beginning to suffer the same growing pains experienced by the large urban centers elsewhere. It is necessary that some means be provided for coping with financial and governmental problems resulting from continued urban expansion. Wisconsin has been regarded as primarily urban since 1930 when over half the population was located in cities and villages. The population has continued steadily to shift to urban centers; and by 1955, cities and villages contained 55.5 per cent of the state's population. If the present trend continues and all indications are that it will, it is expected that the number of persons living in cities and villages will move to around 65 per cent by 1975.

Between 1950 and 1957 the main portion of the population increase, both in absolute numbers and in per cent, took place in the 15 most populous counties in the state, including Milwaukee.

These counties accounted for about 65 per cent of the state's 1957 population; only 63 per cent lived in the 20 smallest counties. The total population growth in Wisconsin from 1900 to 1955 was 78 per cent. Urban population increased over 163 per cent, or twice as fast as that of the state as a whole. The rural increase for the same period was only 26 per cent.

What Was Purpose of Teen Bar In First Place? Writer Asks

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Some observations on teenage bars:

We have been having a good deal of debate since the teenage bars were set up. It gives a person pause to wonder why we did this in the first place. All in all one comes to the sad conclusion that we made a big mistake. We set up a situation which isolates the teenagers to their own outlooks, pains, grievances, and rebellions at an age when they most need adult guidance.

It is hard to figure why we are so willing to guide our teenagers in all the wholesome things and have nothing to do with them in the not so wholesome things. Each of us is more than willing to bob up and take credit for teaching our kids to play ball, golf, swim, recite poetry, paint, hunt, fish, cook, sew, dance, etc., etc., etc. In those activities where a kid couldn't go wrong if he wanted to he's got more adult supervision than a picnic has ants. But in all those things that adults do that aren't good for them but are human indulgences pure and simple where a kid can really go wrong, try and find adult guidance.

No, we still kid ourselves and pretend it never happens and the kids have to find out about tobacco, whiskey and sex from either the naive or the peddler because mother and father are above it all. Perhaps it is time to face the fact that somebody is smoking all those cigars and drinking all that liquor. Let's admit that it is us and that because we set the example the kids are going to do it, too. Then with the decks cleared let's get down to the serious business of taking the effort and responsibility to set the example of how to do these things with discretion and dignity.

We take our teenagers in the most conflicting years of their lives when they are full of drives, ambitions, dreams, romance, adventure, and frustrations, fresh with big muscles driven by sharp creative minds and with mother nature playing hob with their glands we isolate them to themselves. In addition we give them plenty of money to buy beer to help them commiserate the fact that they still aren't considered good enough for the adults. All this with the responsibility for guidance and example in the hands of an operator whose living depends upon his volume of sale.

Alcohol is alcohol. It may take a little more total fluid intake with beer but its just as sure as whiskey. The thing that decides whether a kid gets out of hand is his own judgment, not which beverage he drinks. A person at age 18 is no more or less capable of making that judgment with respect to beer than whiskey.

Rather than establish the teenage bar as a permanent thing we should eliminate it entirely. Whatever the age when adults think a young person is old enough that person should drink at regular adult drinking places under the eye and supervision of adults. These young people should accommodate themselves to the adult pattern and restrictions.

I don't make out much of a case for the old days but I will say this. When a young man got old enough to go into a saloon he was there at the sufferance of the men. He darn soon learned to act like a man or get thrown out. He drank strictly on the men's terms according to men's rules. He wasn't chased off to some hideout where he set up his own rules and drank on his own terms.

One thing seems very clear and that is, the worst possible thing we can do is to perpetuate this business of isolating our lowest level of judgment and capacity in one place on their own terms without the pressure and example of adult society.

Prefers Law Limiting Term Of Presidents

Soldier's Reunion at Milwaukee

79 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of May 22, 1880.

The Chicago and North Western Railroad will sell round trip tickets from all its stations in Wisconsin to Milwaukee and return for the Soldier's Reunion in June at about one and one-half cents per mile each way.

This is an extremely low rate. All soldiers should go. Soldiers who intend to camp out must take along a pair of blankets, towel, tin plate, knife, fork, spoon, comb and their own tooth-pick. Fifty cents a day will be the cost of rations on the camp ground.

One of the incidents of the reunion will be a gunboat engagement on the Lake, in which actual shot and shell will be thus fired and her magazine exploded.

Appraisal of Nelson For First Six Months

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — What is normally the critical period for a new governor, the regular legislative session, is drawing to a close and there will be a disposition among friends and foe of Gov. Nelson soon to tally the results of his first six months.

What will be apparent immediately, however, is that the new Democratic leader of the state, whether through political design or otherwise, has managed to acquire more time for the making of a record and will arrange a postponement of the assessment.

The reason is that many of the major issues of his term, those upon which the public judgment will ultimately be rendered with respect to his adequacy as administration head, have been put off until the fall session of the legislature. Some of those questions may not be definitely resolved until about the time the Yule adornments appear around the statehouse.

THE LINEUP

There are the issues of appropriations and finance, historically the basic test for many critical voters. Both have been pushed into the fall session.

There is the equally broad and significant question of state debt policy, which Nelson the candidate pounded so hard during his campaign. It has been deferred until the fall session.

There is the issue of basic tax revision, with reverberations for the local government halls of Wisconsin as well as the entire state government, which awaits the conclusions of an academic study committee and a citizens review committee and probably won't be settled until October or November.

There is the issue of state administrative reorganization, implied in a hundred campaign speeches before and after the election, but which also will apparently await further studies and especially budget hearings in the summer. No general reorganization pattern will emerge for the consideration of the legislature now sitting, according to all appearances.

But what of the Nelson program in the circumscribed form that has appeared editors of The Chicago Tribune.

One might ask himself what happens when the mass of people become enamored of a popular spellbinder of a rascal. That is the kind of man who is more apt to get himself elected and reelected again and again and again.

When that happens there better be a law and that law better stick, or it may be too late.

Rep. William M. Colmer (D., Miss.), debating the need for more economy in government and the dangers of inflation told the house he recently had a talk with the secretary of the treasury.

"When I started the talk I was concerned about what the future held for my grandchildren," Colmer said. "By the time we finished the talk I was getting worried about myself."

C of C Retail Unit Suggests Summer Schedule

Kaukauna — A schedule of summer hours for business places has been recommended by the retail committee of the Chamber of Commerce but each store owner will decide on whether to follow the suggested schedule or maintain separate hours. Store owners have been asked to post summer business hours. The committee suggests business places remain open Thursday night, May 28, and close at 5 p.m. May 29, the day before Memorial day. All-day closing is recommended on May 30 and July 4. Stores are asked to remain open the night of July 2 but close at 5 p.m. July 3. The usual noon closing hours are being recommended for June, July and August.

5 Men Fined in Justice Court

Kaukauna — Five motorists pleaded guilty to traffic violations when arraigned before Oscar T. Jahns, justice of the peace, Monday, three of them for speeding.

Bernard Rolf, 28, 918 Taft street, Kaukauna, was fined $15 for speeding while Gordon Kain, Jr., 19, 1702 E. Randall street, Appleton, and George Fleischman, 42, 308 W. Tenth street, Kaukauna, were fined $10 for speeding.

Thomas Dollevet, 18, 322 S. Sidney street, Kimberly, was fined $10 for failing to stop for an arterial and Herbert Bernard, 28, route 2, Chilton, was fined $10 for operating a vehicle outside an area permitted on a restricted driver's license.

Bernard will have four points charged against his record toward revocation of his driver's license while the others will be charged three points.

Summer Music Clinic Winners At KHS Named

Band Mothers Give Scholarships at Spring Band Concert

Kaukauna—Scholarships to the summer music clinic at Madison were presented to Helen Forde and Dwight Bastian, juniors at Kaukauna High school, by Mrs. Lester Lindemuth, president of the Band Mothers club during the annual spring concert at the civic auditorium.

The scholarship program, adopted by Band Mothers last year, permits music students to further training by attending the University of Wisconsin clinic, June 21, through July 11. Winners were selected by a committee composed of band mothers, Elwood Bleick, band director, and Julian Bichler, principal.

The junior band, composed of grade students from St. Mary's, Holy Cross, Trinity Lutheran, Park and Nicolet schools appeared on the program as did the high school band. Solo numbers were offered by Greg Dery and Lee Jo Jacob. Eugene DeGroot gave a flag twirling exhibition.

High school seniors playing their final concert included Jacob, Sandra Schmalz, Karen Hermans, Thomas Hecker, Kathleen Hopfensperger, Thomas Kersten and Gale Voet.

How to plant your seed-money for a second income

Harvesting a second income really doesn't require any special green thumb. But... a little experienced advice on when and where to plant your seed-money can help your crop to grow.

Do a little spade work with a Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange. Talk with a Partner or Registered Representative about stocks or bonds. He will use his training and experience to aid and advise you about investing.

Have a down-to-earth chat with him—about how much you'd like to invest and the kind of financial plans you're thinking of. He'll help you decide whether to plant your investment money in bonds or stocks—or perhaps suggest that you keep part of it in cash. And continue to check your investments with him... he'll gladly give you his best advice whether you buy or sell.

Remember, just as every seed doesn't bear flowers, some companies may not pay dividends or interest. And stock and bond prices go down as well as up. That's why you should invest only after providing for living expenses and emergencies.

Never start plowing on the basis of tips or rumors—but get facts and figures from a Member Firm.

You don't have to fork over mounds of money to get started. Through the Monthly Investment Plan, you can begin with as little as $40 every three months—up to $1,000 every month.

If you want to plan towards a second income, call on any Member Firm or send for our interesting free booklet, "INVESTMENT FACTS." It describes the Monthly Investment Plan, gives interesting facts about investing and lists over 300 stocks that have paid dividends every three months from 20 to 95 years.

Mother of Young Killer Shoots Self

Chicago — A mother grieving over her teenage son, who is serving a life sentence in prison for murder, fatally shot herself Monday, police said.

While her husband, Max, and the couple's two children slept, police said Mrs. Margaret Fleig, 45, shot herself in the head with a German pistol Fleig said the shots awakened him and the children, Loreta, 16, and Ronald, 8. He found his wife lying on the living room floor, the pistol near her outstretched arm. She died a few hours later in a hospital.

Fleig told police his wife tried to take her life on May 10—but an overdose of sleeping pills only made her ill. He said she had been grieving since their oldest child, Robert Max, 19, was sent to Stateville prison on April 21, 1958, for the 1957 slaying of Mary Lou Wagner, 14, in a lover's lane near Glenview naval air station. The youth said he clubbed her to death with a rolling pin from his father's bakery after she resisted his advances.

Young Fleig learned of his mother's death from a radio news broadcast in the prison.

City of Appleton
CURB AND GUTTER RESOLUTION
FILED IN CITY RECORDS
DECLARING INTENT TO OPEN SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICTS IN THE CITY OF APPLETON, WISCONSIN, STATUTES OF WHICH ARE HEREBY RESOLVED, BY THE CITY OF APPLETON, WISCONSIN:
1. The Common Council declares its intention to open special assessment districts in the City of Appleton, Wisconsin, Statutes, to levy special assessments upon a portion of the following described area for benefits conferred by the City of Appleton, Wisconsin, Statutes.
All property fronting both sides of the following streets:
a. Sawdust Creek from the intersection of said street with N. Rankin Street to the intersection of said street with N. Lincoln Street.
2. Said public improvement district include the grading and paving of said street to be established by Ordinance of the City of Appleton, Wisconsin, Statutes, and the surfacing of said street with stone and the installing curb and gutter on either side of said street.
3. Before such improvements are made, the Board of Public Works is directed to place and sewer service lines and to install water lines on each lot fronting on the street and to keep an accurate record of the location of each lot and report to the City of Appleton, Wisconsin, Statutes.
4. The City Clerk is charged to place a lien on each lot to be assessed on the tax roll as a special tax against said lot for the amount of the assessment against such street shall exceed the total cost of the improvements assessed against any parcel not be greater than the amount of the assessment for the improvements.
5. The assessments against a parcel may be paid in installments of not more than the sum if entered on Taxative (5) annual installments.
6. The Board of Public Works is directed to prepare a plan consisting of:
a. Preliminary plans and specifications for said improvements.
b. An estimate of the cost of the proposed improvements.
c. An estimate as to each of property within the proposed district:
1) The assessment to be levied against such property.
2) The damages to be levied against such property damaged by the improvements.
3) The net amount of the improvements.
4) The total cost of the improvements.
Upon completing such report the Board of Public Works is directed to file a copy of the report with the City Clerk's office for inspection.
7. Upon receiving the report of the Board of Public Works, the City of Appleton, Wisconsin, Statutes, is directed to hold a public hearing on the report as specified in Section 10 of the City of Appleton, Wisconsin, Statutes, and such hearing shall be held at the City Chambers in the City of Appleton, Wisconsin, Statutes, at a time set by the Board of Public Works.
Adopted May 6, 1939.

Reds Told Not To Make New Move in Berlin

Herter, that sounded as if it might be a veiled hint of a new threat.

Thereupon Herter told Gromyko that anyone who thought the president of the United States would go to a summit conference under duress or threat of a cut-off date had better forget it.

The president's attendance ward across Texas, Oklahoma and the gulf states as well as along most of the Atlantic seaboard.

It was warm and humid in the eastern section of the country and warm moist air from the gulf spread northward to the Canadian border. Temperatures were higher in a wide belt from Georgia, Tennessee and the western Carolinas northward to the Ohio valley and the Great Lakes region. Readings were mostly in the 60s and 70s in the warm belt, with some 50s near the Canadian border.

It was a little cooler along the eastern slopes of the Rockies and nearby sections of the high plains. Showers sprinkled areas from the Washington - Oregon coast eastward to the eastern slopes of the Rockies but mostly fair weather prevailed in the far south.

under such circumstances. Khrushchev last Nov. 27 that would be impossible, Herter emphasized.

As the Big Four talks moved through their second week, the western leaders were considering a bid by Gromyko to break up their package plan for a German settlement and remove four points from it for discussion.

May Make Trade

It was expected that the western ministers would agree to talk about these points but that they might seek to exact some price from Gromyko in return. They were reported determined to avoid the impression that they were scrapping the rest of the package program, which Gromyko rejected in his strong speech to the conference yesterday.

Gromyko called western proposals for unification of East and West Berlin — the first phase of the package — "utterly unacceptable."

In a private conference on Berlin with British Foreign Sec. Selwyn Lloyd, the Russian echoed a suggestion of Premier Nikita Khrushchev that neutral troops might be called in to police a free West Berlin.

A western official gave this account of that talk:

"You have rejected the western plan on Berlin," Lloyd said. "Now, what are the possibilities for an agreement?"

3 Possibilities

Gromyko then stated that three possible arrangements could be discussed by the Big Four ministers:

1. The withdrawal of U.S., British and French troops from West Berlin, which would become a free city.

This was the demand by Khrushchev last Nov. 27 that would be impossible, Herter emphasized.

2. The western troops would remain in West Berlin, but would be joined by Soviet troops. This would give the communists a military toe-hold there.

3. Neutral troops would be stationed in West Berlin. Gromyko did not say whether he meant U.N. troops.

The United States and Britain were said to be thinking of a U.N. commissioner general for Berlin. But there was no suggestion that the two powers were considering any forces to replace the western troops with U.N. troops.

Sec. Gen. Dag Hammarskjöld has said such a shift would be impractical.

Lloyd was reported to have prodded Gromyko for an agreement to maintain the present status of West Berlin. The western official said Gromyko replied firmly that this could not be considered.

So far, the exchanges with Gromyko have failed to produce any development capable of changing the pessimistic estimate with which Herter, at least, came here. The conference may go on for several weeks more.

Flash Flood Hits City in Missouri

awatha, Everest and Denton, Kan., about 25 miles west of St. Joseph. Storm warnings enabled the farm families to take shelter. No one was injured.

Flooding blocked U.S. 36 near Highland and Fanning in the same Kansas area.

Flood Recedes Quickly

The St. Joseph flood followed the Great Western railroad tracks through an older section of the city. The area is a combination business and residential district.

Police estimated the flood zone was two or three blocks wide and about four miles long. There was speculation that clogged sewers contributed to the flood. The water receded rapidly.

St. Joseph avenue, the main street in the district, roughly parallels the railroad.

Parked automobiles were tumbled along the avenue by the rushing water.

The flood smashed the windows of the big Green Hills supermarket just as eight clerks were closing the store. Trapped inside, they fled to the roof.

Trapped in Auto

Mrs. Glenn Case, wife of one of the clerks, arrived in a car to pick up her husband just as the water hit. She and her three small children were trapped in the car.

Alfred Dougal, one of the clerks, reached the car and passed the woman and children up to the other men on the roof.

Firemen took the 12 persons off the supermarket with an extension ladder.

"We didn't have time to get out of the car," said Mrs. Case. "The water surged all country. Skies were generally around us all at once. It threw the car against the front of the store."

Some small houses along the railroad tracks floated off their foundations.

Boats Useless

Water was 10 feet deep in the Great Western freight house, and a number of the railroad's diesel locomotives were standing in the water.

All off-duty police and firemen were recalled to duty. They found the current so swift that boats were virtually useless. In some cases rescuers strung ropes from tree to tree to help victims reach safety.

At the head of St. Joseph avenue water was five feet deep in businesses and homes.

The flood poured over the railroad tracks and through a huge storm sewer into the Missouri river. High ground prevented it from reaching the main business district.

The heavy rains and stormy weather early this morning hit areas from northeastern Kansas across northern Missouri and southern Iowa into northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin. Flash flooding of small streams threatened northeastern Kansas and northwestern Missouri.

Tornado winds, hail and rain pounded sections of Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa yesterday. Hardest hit Iowa communities were Shenandoah and Corning. No injuries were reported in the violent storm belt.

Storms in Minnesota

Scattered thunderstorms were reported in northern Minnesota, with strong winds and hail in some areas. Rain clouds hovered across most of the northern section of the state.

Skies were generally

Proximity to Milwaukee Seen as Racine Handicap

BY SERGE E. LOGAN

Racine—The city of Racine took a second look at its harbor and decided that despite the potentials of the St Lawrence seaway it was not economically sound to invest at this time in extensive facilities.

Major industrialists who would use a harbor facility met with Mayor Jack H. Humble and the harbor commission recently to weigh needs against costs and came up with these factors:

1. Tax money would be spent more wisely if it were used to provide better land transportation between Racine and Milwaukee harbor, 25 miles north of Racine.
2. Racine's proximity to the Milwaukee harbor, with its extensive facilities and equipment, is a deterrent to a cost-more expensive to transfer goods from the Milwaukee need.
3. It would not be much harbor than from any proposed Racine development. Once goods are on a truck the cost of transporting them 25 miles farther is not too important.

Limited Facilities. Racine would not be an attractive port of call since its facilities would be limited and because it is too close to Chicago and Milwaukee. Industries must get their goods on the first available ship and frequency of calls to Racine would not meet industry's needs.

This is not to say that Ra-development's industrialists and businessmen are opposed to harbor development.

Fred M. Young, president of Young Radiator company and chairman of the harbor commission, voiced optimism over the shipping potentials for Racine, but he agreed that the time to expand has not arrived.

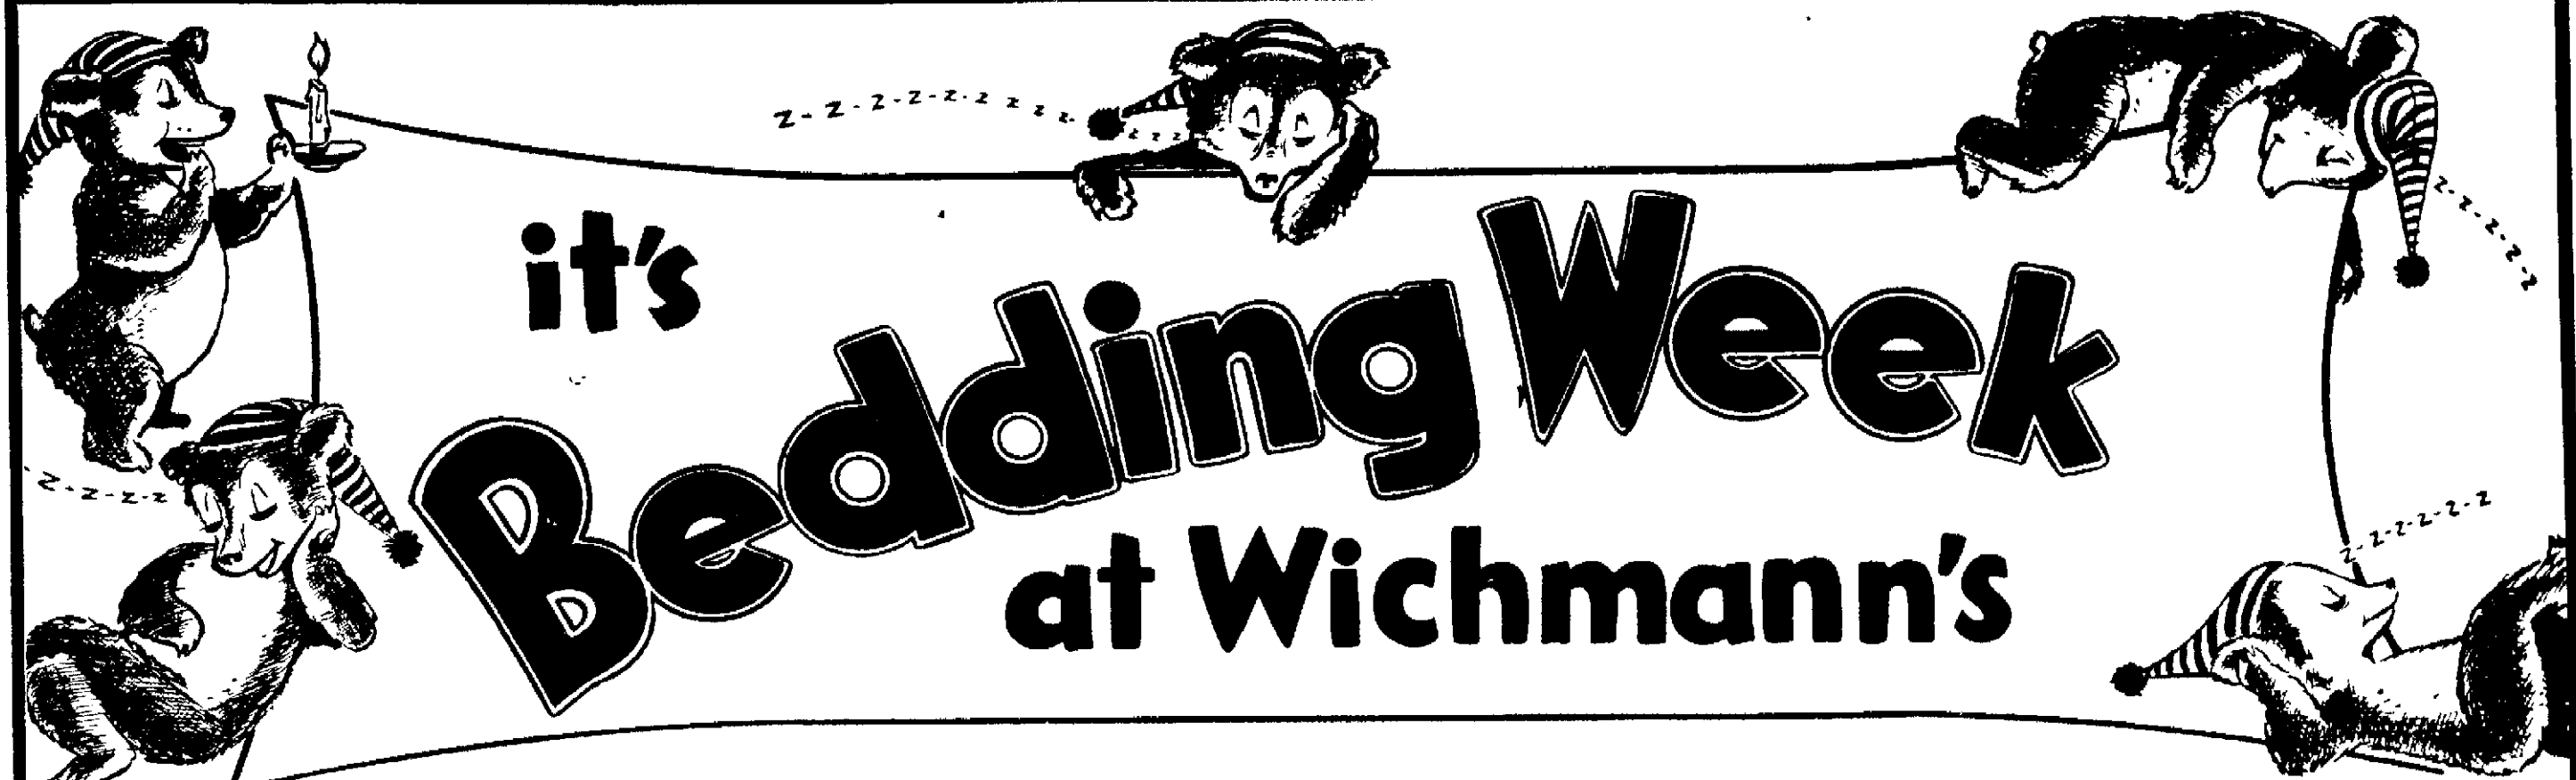

The consensus of those who attended the mayor's conference was that Racine should keep abreast of economic developments in the first few years of the St Lawrence seaway operation and then determine how far the city needs to meet demands.

Privately Owned Docks. Young expressed confidence that Racine's present facilities with most of the dock areas privately owned, could handle many of the ships which will be using the sea-feet on the north bank of the quiring the land, the city Root river, west of a bridge would face the expense of re-

In 1957, the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad company offered to sell to the city for $1 about 200 feet of dockside land east of the bridge. Aldermen turned it down, however, because the Wisconsin Electric Power company, which owns an adjacent site, said its property would not be available to extend the city docks.

In the past 10 years, principal inbound commodities of the railroad Racine's harbor have been property would not provide coal and petroleum products, of sufficient dock space for any fish and quarry stone, with an annual tonnage of 185,000.

Campus Stars, King, Queen Presented at Lawrence's Prom, 'De la Mer'

King, Queen Reign at 1959 Prom

Karl Schmidt, Chicago, who campaigned as "Karlitos," a Mexican character, and his queen JoAnn Staab, Thiensville, reigned over the Lawrence college spring prom Saturday night in the Memorial union. A clam shell throne, in keeping with the theme of "De La Mer," was the setting for the coronation, presided over by co-social chairmen Ann De Long, Grinnell, Iowa, and Gretchen Affeldt, Kasson, Minn.

Eight Campus Stars, the college's beauty queens selected by student body vote, formed the royal court at the festivities. Those so honored in 1959 were: Judith Walsh, Milwaukee; Marilyn Low, Evanston, Ill.; Mary Shaw, Menasha; Lysbeth Vaillancourt, Milwaukee; Linda Ohlander, Evanston, Ill.; Joan Nelson, Lake Geneva; Susan Scidmore, Janesville; and Nancy Wissmiller, Minneapolis, Minn.

The king and his court were entertained by several musical numbers, including a vocal solo, a dance routine, and a quartet.

Schmidt, a senior, is past president of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and has served as choir director of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia music group. He has participated in the orchestra, the band, several dramatic productions, the Religion in Life conference, and has worked on several student government committees.

Miss Staab, a junior, is a member of Delta Gamma sorority, of which she is corresponding secretary. She is a counselor to freshman women and has been co-chairman of the SEC homecoming committee.

Miss Walsh, a senior, last week was named maid of honor in the May Day ceremony. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa national scholastic honorary, Mortar Board, and Delta Gamma social sorority. She has served as a counselor to freshman women and has received academic honors and high honors.

Miss Low, a junior, is the new president of Mortar Board, a counselor to freshman women, a cheerleader, member of the President's Committee, the Lawrence Art association, the Lawrence United Charities board, and has received academic honors and high honors.

Miss Shaw, a member of Delta Gamma social sorority, is a senior and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. She has previously been elected Valentine queen, homecoming queen, and a member of the May Queen's court. She has been vice president of her sorority and a member of the New Student Week committee and the staff of the year book.

Sea Theme For College Dance

Rays of green and blue filtered through the huge windows overlooking the Fox river, highlighted by sparkling gold and silver fish, to create an undersea atmosphere in the Memorial union for Lawrence's annual spring prom, "De La Mer," held Saturday evening.

Guests entered the River-view lounge through an underwater tunnel, and the orchestra played from the deck of a sinking ship. Downstairs was another ballroom and orchestra, and the stairway en route was lined with a finger-painted mural of oceanic life—starfish, schools of fish and seaweed. The total effect was one of cooling enjoyment for Lawrence's fanciest social weekend.

Of the other Campus Stars, Miss Ohlander, a junior, is a newly elected member of Mortar Board and belongs to Delta Gamma sorority, of which she is a vice president. She is a counselor to freshman women, president of the Lawrence Women's association, and has received academic honors.

Miss Scidmore is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and last year was on the queen's court of the Midwest conference track meet. A junior, she is on the Judicial board and is chairman of the coffee hour committee for the student government. She is editor of this year's handbook.

Miss Wissmiller is also a junior and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She participates in the concert choir, is secretary of the Pan-Hellenic council, and was chairman of homecoming plans for her dormitory. She is president of Aqua Fin, the girls' swimming group, and a member of the Lawrence Women's association board.

This is the second major honor within a week for Miss Vaillancourt, who last Sunday was named 1959 May Queen. A senior and member of Phi Beta Kappa, she has been president and vice president of her sorority, Kappa Delta, a counselor to freshman women, president of Mortar Board, a Best Loved senior, homecoming queen in 1958, a member of the concert choir, and has received scholastic honors and high honors.

No Present For Second Wedding

BY EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: One of the girls in the office is going to be married soon. This young woman has been married previously not too many years ago, but unfortunately this marriage terminated in divorce. At the time of her first marriage she was given a shower and the customary wedding check by her colleagues. Our problem concerns what to do about a wedding present now that a new marriage is taking place. Do we give this co-worker another wedding gift check? We do wish to do the proper thing but our funds are not unlimited.

Answer: You need not give her a second gift. At a second wedding, friends of the bride who gave presents to her the first time are not expected to give a second present.

Anniversary Party

Dear Mrs. Post: Where should my husband and I receive and who should stand with us, at our silver wedding anniversary celebration? Only one of our attendants can be present. What part should our children take?

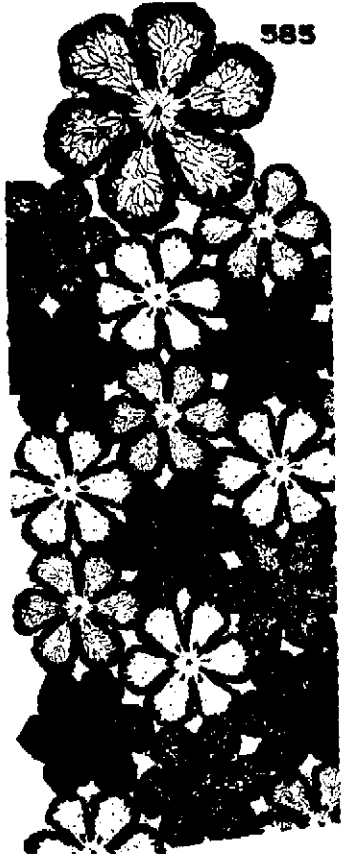

Answer: You and your husband stand together just inside the door of the room in which you will receive. It is not expected, but it will be very suitable to ask the attendant you speak of to receive with you. Your children make themselves agreeable by circulating among your guests and seeing that none of them appear to be in any way neglected.

Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her Chelsea Station, New York 11, booklet No. 520, entitled, "Etiquette of Letter Writing," send 25 cents in coin to Dept. E.P., care of Post-Crescent, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N.Y.

Plans Recital

Miss Judy Klingbell will give a piano recital at 3 p.m. Sunday at the home of her cut-out doll, clothes to color teacher, Mrs. Rudolph Voll, 1727 E. Franklin street.

Mohawk Chief, Charlie Exchange Formal Words Over Oneida Gift

BY CHARLES HOUSE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Montreal — I visited the once-wild Mohawk Indians today, and was greeted by an affable fellow who is chief of them all. He is a portly gentleman named Chief Poking Fire. Like most eastern Indians, he eschews that irascible Mohawk hair-do in favor of the more colorful accoutrement of the western tribes, the feather head dress.

In formal words, I explained my mission: "Chief Poking Fire, I bring a gift to you from your brothers, the Oneida Indians of Wisconsin."

"Please accept this gift for it comes from the heart of my friends of Oneida. It is the peace pipe. May it end forever the wars and the troubles between tribal brothers. I have brought it a thousand miles. Let it renew your brothers' love for you and yours for them."

Chief Poking Fire accepted the Oneida gift — a fine specimen of the craftsmanship of the Oneidas. A handsome bow, made from the Minnesota pipestone, as of old, with a willow stem, it was a true calumet. The chief was very pleased.

Chief Answers

"I ask that you please tell my tribal brothers that my heart is glad," said Chief Poking Fire in the peculiar eloquence of the Indian.

"Tell them that their Mohawk brothers look upon them as brothers and will think of them well for as long as we both shall last."

"Tell them that the bad times between us so long ago have gone from the minds of all living Mohawks. We are brothers once again and that is the way we will remain."

"Tell them I shall ask for the blessing of God for them, and that I will pray for them."

This conversational exchange was a strange one for the 20th century Poking for 1,500 years. Much of the land used in the present development of the seaway had to be purchased from the Mohawks.

Move Burial Grounds

The tribe, however, refused to sell unless the remains of their ancestors were removed from the paths of the flooding waters and the big shovels. Hundreds of ancient burial places were moved and the expropriation of the Indian lands was successfully made.

As I took my leave from the chief of all the Mohawks, I said:

"Chief Poking Fire, I am taking a 900-mile canoe trip up the Ottawa river to my home in Wisconsin. I want you to keep those crazy braves of yours off my back."

He promised.

June 27 Nuptial Date Chosen by Jayne Mathias

A June 27 wedding date has been selected by Miss Jayne Mathias, 516 W. Sixth street, whose engagement to Robert Beck, Manawa, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mathias, Manawa.

Mr. Beck, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Beck, will claim his fiancée in rites at Manawa. Miss Mathias and her fiancée are graduates of Little Wolf High school, Manawa. She is employed by Aid Association for Lutherans and he is employed with his father in the construction field.

County Judge to Attend Juvenile Court Talks

County Judge Stanley A. Staidl will attend the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges conference in Salt Lake City June 16 to 20. Theme of the meeting will be "60, Time for Decision," and will include workshops set up according to county population, dealing with problems faced in juvenile courts.

Mohawk Chief Poking Fire smilingly accepts in friendship the handsomely hand-crafted pipe of peace made by the Wisconsin Oneidas from Post-Crescent columnist Charles House at Quebec Indian village at Caughnawago. Charlie brought the Indian calumet from the Oneidas to renew officially for the first time tribal ties that were broken in the 17th and 18th centuries. House is in Montreal preparing for his 900-mile canoe trip in retracing the journey of Jean Nicolet to Wisconsin in 1634.

Advertisement committee consisted of the Mmes. Bernard Bloh, R. M. Brandt, John Henzkill, Edwin Massonette, Wydeven and Pelczynski.

FHA Personnel Attend Talks On Facilities

The federal housing administration's new approach in making FHA facilities available in small towns was explained in detail Monday at city hall to about 50 agents, appraisers and inspectors in the first of three training sessions to be held across the state.

Additional sessions will be held today in Wisconsin Rapids and Wednesday in La Crosse.

Monday's session was split into sections for agents and one for appraisers and inspectors. Ford F. Linzee, zone director of FHA's certified agency program, was in charge.

Other speakers were Joseph J. James, head of the mortgage credit examiner section; Raymond E. Wachs, appraisals section chief, and Elmer F. Rathke, head of the FHA architectural section.

Hourly-Paid Workers Get Holiday Pay

One of Six Days Guaranteed by City, Mayor Tells Board

Hourly - paid city employees will be paid for Memorial day, but monthly - paid workers will not receive extra compensation for the holiday.

This was the report of city policy which Mayor Mitchell has given the park board.

If any hourly - paid city employee works on Memorial day, a Saturday, he will be paid time-and-a-half in addition to regular pay.

Council rules, the mayor told the board, guarantee six paid holidays for the hourly-paid. Monthly - paid workers simply are guaranteed 26 pay days, he said.

All Sign Bills City Atty. Jury explained to the board that each member of the board should sign all bills to certify them to the city clerk for payment.

In the past, only the board secretary signed bills. He then sent each board member a marked as dismissed in traffic court records.

An inspection of current bills caused Mayor Mitchell to reopen his contention that all city vehicles should obtain their gasoline from a central point supplied by one law tender. The park board, a bill showed, pays 17.9 cents a gallon for gasoline, the most by any city department.

Tax Officials Seek Records Continue Probe In Alleged Theft Of Traffic Fines

Chicago — Federal tax authorities have directed the state's attorney's office to give them all records seized in an investigation into alleged thefts of traffic fines payments.

Paul Newey, chief investigator for State's Atty. Benjamin Adamowski, said Monday he has been directed to deliver the papers by May 29 to the U. S. Treasury Department's intelligence division.

Seized Papers State's attorney's police seized the records March 30 during raids on two middlemen firms which handle payment of traffic fines for currency exchanges.

Adamowski has charged that almost $500,000 in traffic fines paid by motorists at currency exchanges and forwarded to traffic court never reached the city treasury. He said these cases had been marked as dismissed in traffic court records.

Four court aides have been arrested in connection with the investigation.

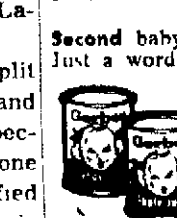

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

The second-time mother has a certain "old-hand-at-the-game" confidence in caring for the new arrival. Her real challenge is how to give baby the sense of security he needs, now more than ever. One common sensible suggestion from a baby nurse: "It's a good idea to play down the new baby and play up the toddler during the first few months. If 'fussing over' the new baby is kept down to a minimum, the older child will feel less left out."

Second baby coming your way? Just a word to remind you that when the doctor specifies Vitamin C, your new baby will enjoy these special starting juices: Gerber Strained Orange Juice and Apple Juice. The Orange Juice is made from tree-ripened fruit and is rich in natural vitamin C. The Apple Juice has a delightful flavor and is fortified with vitamin C. If you've a toddler, he will enjoy Gerber Strained Pineapple Grapefruit and Orange Pineapple—both enriched with vitamin C.

When baby starts on solids, don't forget that Gerber Cereals provide needed calories, vitamins and minerals in easy-to-digest form. 5 varieties, delightful for babies and toddlers.

Nursery notes. If dad intends to repaint the nursery furniture, make sure he gets non-toxic paint, the kind made especially for children's furniture. You know how babies will gnaw on anything. P. S. It's a good idea to move a toddler from his crib to a larger size bed at least two or three months before cherub #2 arrives.

8 ways to give your baby strength and help promote his growth. Gerber Strained Meats are a veritable treasure-trove of protein. Made from selected Armour cuts, they're specially processed to preserve true meat flavors. Most of the fat and coarse tissue is removed for easy digestibility. For toddlers, Gerber has a brand new meat variety, Junior Chicken. Delicious. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.

Iroquoian Nation

Historically, the Oneidas and the relentless Mohawks were tribal brothers. They belonged to a 6-nation confederacy with the Cayuga, Onondaga, Seneca and Tuscarora. The confederacy was called by a single name—the Iroquois.

The Iroquoian nations occupied the territory surrounding Lakes Ontario and Erie extending east as far as the Hudson river.

When France's great explorer, Samuel de Champlain, opposed a Mohawk war party on Lake Champlain, the Oneidas took sides with the French against the Mohawks and later against the Iroquois, a relentless vendetta entered history.

The Iroquois made ceaseless and terrible war upon New France and upon French-Indian. That war aided in setting up the British conquest in the French and Indian wars and ultimately forced France out of the New World.

So far as I know, today's exchange of soft words and gifts was the first official peace-making ceremony between the tribes which once were terrible foes. Chief Poking Fire, too, felt certain that no friendly treaty had ever been made after the hostilities of the 17th and 18th centuries.

When the British, aided greatly by the Iroquois, soundly defeated the French, they sought to force the colonists to help pay the costs of the war through an array of taxes. It led to Patrick Henry's "taxation without representation" speech to the Boston Tea Party, to the Revolutionary war — and American freedom.

The Mohawks—some 3,000 of them—live in the village of Caughnawaga, Quebec, along the St. Lawrence river where Indians have lived

Three Youths Caught With Stolen Fuel

Three 18-year-old youths were caught Monday night transferring stolen gasoline from a stolen warehouse storage drum to their car.

The youths, all from Appleton, stole gasoline from a tank at the Western Condensing company plant on County Trunk BB, transferred it to a 55-gallon drum stolen from Fox River Tractor company, 1020 N. Rankin street, then took it for use in their car, officials said. The youths placed the drum — a bright orange — on the farm of Harry Verhagen in the town of Vandebroek, north of County Trunk JJ and West of Highway 55.

Vandebroek Constable Austin Dieckrich and Urban J. Coenen, who found the drum, set up watch for the youths Sunday. The drum was placed in the field Saturday night Undersheriff Donald Heinritz said.

When the youths started getting gasoline from the drum Monday night, Dieckrich and Coenen, armed with a baseball bat and a pitchfork, herded them to a road where County Patrolman Calvin Spice and Heinritz arrived to take over.

One of the youths is on parole from Waukesha school for boys for a shooting in Calumet county.

Robert C. Beltrone

Beltrone Resigns as CD Director

Robert C. Beltrone, Appleton civil defense director since Feb. 20, 1957, resigned today, effective June 15.

Beltrone, 28, 121 S. Lee street, said he might seek the combined city-county coordinator post if and when it is established.

The resignation will be presented at Wednesday night's council meeting for approval of the aldermen.

Beltrone said he's resigning "to promote the advancement of civil defense for Appleton."

Will Continue Work

He attributed the decision to city-county talks promising a central control headquarters for both the city and county. "Ever since my appointment as director," said Beltrone, "it has been my desire to see a fulltime civil defense operation both for Appleton and Outagamie county."

With the two governments (city and county) now working hand in hand, it is only right that I submit this resignation," Beltrone said he would continue to work in civil defense and would make his files available to the new organization.

Former Wittenberg Merchant Dies at 82 in Shawano

Charles A. Thoreson, 82, former Wittenberg merchant, died Monday in Shawano after a short illness. He had lived at Shawano Lake since retiring in 1941.

Thoreson was born in Milwaukee, April 25, 1877, and went to Clintonville, as a child. He acquired a variety store at Wittenberg in 1928.

4 Men Fined On Charges of Tipsy Driving

Two in Appleton Court; Two Face Waupaca Justice

Fines and/or jail sentences have been levied against four men convicted of drunken driving and other charges. They are:

Frederick J. Jordan, 18, route 2, West DePere, Harold J. Kemp, 26, 401 Western avenue, Neenah, Arthur K. Basford, 23, route 1, Amherst, Garvin Gillham, 33, route 1, Hortonville.

Jordan and Kemp appeared today before Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmieg. Basford and Gillham were arranged before Justice George Whalen, Waupaca.

Jordan was jailed when he could not pay a $100 fine on the drunken driving charge and a $10 fine for driving without a license.

He was arrested by Outagamie county police shortly before 2 a. m. Saturday near County Trunks E and E.E. When Patrolman William Janssen pulled up to Jordan's car, the driver pulled his vehicle over and went into the ditch, out of the ditch, across the road and stopped at the edge of the opposite ditch. He tested .19 on the drunkometer. Jordan failed a driver's license test earlier this year. Five other teenagers were riding with him.

Kemp, fined $100, was arrested by county police shortly after 8 p. m. Sunday on Highway 47 near Mackville. Sgt. Lowell Veitch said Kemp pulled out to pass two cars, forcing oncoming traffic off the road. Kemp tested .22 on the drunkometer.

Other Charges Basford, in addition to drunken driving, was charged with operating after revocation and driving an unregistered vehicle. He pleaded guilty and was fined $200 or 90 days for drunken driving, 30 days in jail for driving after revocation and $10 or 30 days for non-registration.

He was arrested Friday after his car left County Trunk K near the Waupaca cemetery and crashed into Shadow lake. Basford escaped serious injury.

Gillham was arrested Saturday on Highway 54 near Roy, alton by Waupaca county police. He was fined $200 for drunken driving and received a 15-day jail term for driving after revocation.

Denies Drunken Driving Charge

Adrian J. Van Bakel, 35, 800 W. Pierce avenue, Little Chute, today in municipal court denied a charge of drunken driving and posted $118.95 bond for trial June 24. Van Bakel was arrested by Appleton police about 1 a. m. this morning after a patrolman saw him ignore a traffic signal at State street and College avenue. Van Bakel refused the drunkometer test.

Strong-Willed Gary Crosby, eldest of Bing's four sons by his first marriage, poses affably with his father on a Hollywood movie set. There's something of a break between the two now, resulting from Gary's eviction from his apartment because of too many parties, but Gary's younger brothers feel sure the breach will heal.

Gary Crosby Leader of Bing's First 4 Sons

Being Eldest, Others Able to Profit
By His Experience, Bouts With Fame

BY BOB THOMAS
Hollywood—Gary is the leader of the four Crosby brothers, and that helps to explain the kind of guy he is. "It was Gary who paved the way for us," explains his youngest brother, Lindsay. "He took all the knocks and we profited from his experience."

Being the eldest, Gary was the first to learn what it was like to bear a famous name. Mother Worried
"I remember how worried when he entered the army," mother was during the kidnapping scare when I was going to grammar school," he says. "She insisted on having nasty digs and extra duty. Just the chauffeur drive me to because you've got a famous school every day. I was so name."

Fought Back
Gary, strong-willed, fought out a block away from school and pick me up the same back. He looks back on his way. When she found out 2-year hitch, largely as an enportabler in Germany, as a miserable experience. He still is taking treatment for nervous ailments he said he incurred during service. Learning from his experience, his three brothers avoided drawing any attention to themselves by entertaining two hours. He reddened, but in the army, Lindsay was at Fort Ord more than a year before the brass learned of his identity. He was then requested to make special appearances, but he turned them down. Observes Phillip: "Gary is the oldest of us, the most aggressive and extroverted. He's the boss and he's a fighter." Adds Dennis: "He has the most temper."

Sometimes the temper has flared, resulting in unpleasant publicity. Sometimes the temper has been held in check. Last fall, the four were dining in a night spot while in New York for the Pat Boone show. A woman at the next table tossed abuse at Gary for two hours. He reddened, but managed to avoid an incident. Gary was the first of the brothers to plunge into show business. They all had appeared with their father in films. Gary first appeared registered as a single by duet-

Nearing 26, Gary lives in a 4-room hillside home once inhabited by Howard Hughes, says Lindsay with quiet pride. He likes to party. This reputation has made him prey for the fun-seekers and led to anything against Dad."

Combination of Park, Recreation Boards Requested

Both Units Agree to 7-Member
Agency to Handle All Functions

Menasha — Abolition of separate Menasha park and recreation boards and their replacement by a single agency was asked Monday by the boards in a joint resolution. The resolution, directed to the city council, asks the change be made effective July 1.

If approved, the council will set up a single park and recreation board, charged with all duties now accruing to both boards.

The present setup, members of both boards agreed Monday, is not satisfactory. Friction between the two agencies has resulted in lack of cooperation and doubt on responsibilities, which are not clearly defined.

Maximum of 7 Park and recreation commissioners also agreed the new board should have a maximum of seven members, meaning some incumbents will be unseated if the single agency is created.

Mayor R. G. DuCharme told the boards when the idea came up about a year ago, he had City Atty. William R. Giese draw an ordinance creating one board, but then no further action was taken for lack of interest.

He and Giese believed the single agency would clear up the difficulties experienced with two boards. Giese added that he still have the ordinance, which could be introduced in two weeks, after submission to the council's ordinance and resolution committee.

Recreation director Robert Vanevenhoven said part of the trouble between his department and the park department has stemmed from getting work done on facilities. "The park board has its meetings and discusses what is to be done on the parks, and the work for the recreation department is sandwiched in between. One board will circumvent the loopholes in authority and supervision."

Vanevenhoven said the memorial building does not need a full time man for maintenance and custodial work, but one man might handle that work half time and supervise recreation department equipment handout the rest of his time.

Vanevenhoven termed park director Harry Kargus, with whom he has had some differences recently, "meticulous" about the parks, adding "I don't blame him for

6th Graders Begin 4-Day Camp Session

Menasha — Sixth grade pupils of the four Menasha public schools today began their four-day school camping session at Camp Shaginappi, 12 miles north of Fond du Lac on the east shore of Lake Winnebago.

The camping days, says the school handbook, are dedicated to Miss Edythe Sanderman, elementary school supervisor. "It was through her inspiration and efforts that this (the third annual) camping session was possible."

Raymond Felt, principal and sixth grade instructor at Butte des Morts schools, is in charge of the camp program this year.

Table and cabin assignments have been made so two sixth graders represent each school. This arrangement, says Felt, assures mixing youngsters from all schools.

Tuesday's program included only traveling to and setting up camp.

Wednesday and Thursday events include bird hikes under Miss Sanderman, handicrafts, athletics and skits. Also included are classes in soil and water conservation, health-hygiene, archery, social studies, plants, art, casting and gun safety.

The program Friday begins with a bird hike and ends with boarding buses at 1:15 p.m. Classes will deal with water safety, art, outdoor distance measuring and nature study and athletics.

21 Girls Seek Title of 'Alice in Dairyland'

Two Regional Winners to be Named
At Banquet; 'Twilight' Parade Planned

Neenah — Twenty-one young girls, attractive and well poised, are seeking two of the regional "Alice in Dairyland" titles to be announced tonight.

Announcement of the two winners will be made at the state contest at Janesville, which will be held at the Elks club. Four "princesses" will be named at Janesville and one of these will be crowned as "Alice" at the state fair in August.

Barbara Hlaslow, this year's "Alice," will crown the two winners tonight as well as promote dairy products in booths in downtown Neenah and Menasha and ride in the twilight parade which will begin in Neenah at 5 p.m. and end in Menasha after proceeding through both downtown districts.

Parade Makeup All of the contestants, four hands and about 40 floats and decorated vehicles will make up the parade.

In the contest from Neenah-Menasha are Susan Landig, Nona Roesler, Carol Jean Sheppard, Barbara Jean Handler, Karen Wyngaard, Mary Ann Schultz, Patsy Ann Jacobs, Phyllis V. Gould, Marie Swieczkowski and Rosemary Robertson.

Others in the contest are Lydia Seifert, Hancock; Nancy Ann Schaffner, Stevens Point; Linda Laper, Ripon; Jean Zimmerman, Eldorado; Arleen Radtke, Markesan; Sally A. Neuther, Berlin; Rosalyn Walters, Princeton; Judy Claire Matson, Waupaca; Linda Runions, Fond du Lac; Rita Ann Erickson North Fond du Lac; and Lynn Roate, Campbellsport.

G. E. Mortensen Dies in Ohio

Insurance Manager
On Business Trip
For Kimberly-Clark

Neenah — Gordon E. Mortensen, Sr., 50, of 111 S. Courtney court, died unexpectedly this morning at Dayton, Ohio, where he was on assignment for Kimberly-Clark corporation.

He was industrial insurance manager in the firm's corporate insurance department.

Mortensen was found about 7:30 in his motel room where he had collapsed while completing preparations to go to breakfast with Dan Harmon of Oshkosh, who had accompanied him to Dayton.

He was born June 28, 1908 in Neenah and attended public schools here. He began work with Kimberly Clark in 1929 and was in charge of lands and plant protection during the war years.

County Board Member Long active in civic affairs, Mortensen served as county board supervisor for 11 years. He was chairman of the board's finance committee.

He was a member of the Neenah board of education from April 1949, until 1956 when he resigned because he moved outside the city. He was vice president of the board for several years.

His church work included chairmanship of the building committee for the new Our Savior's English Lutheran church, completed several years ago.

Services Pending He was past president of the church council and currently was on the board of directors for the Bethany home at Waupaca.

Survivors include the widow; one son, Gordon E., Jr., a student at St. Olaf college, Northfield, Minn.; one daughter, Mrs. Gerhard Knutson, Thousand Oaks, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Harry Stanick, Menasha; one brother, Elmer, Oshkosh; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at Our Savior's Evangelical Lutheran church with the Rev. Raymond Paulsen of Waupaca in charge. Burial will be in Oak Hill cemetery. Friends may call at the Kessler Funeral home after 7 p.m. Wednesday to noon Thursday and at the church after that. A memorial fund has been established.

Neenah Income Tax Refund Up $93,000

Half of Increase From Late Payments Of Last Year's Levy

Neenah — Although Neenah received $93,000 more in its state income tax refund first payment than at the same time last year, part of this refund was from last year when the total received came $81,000 below the budget estimate.

Mayor Bell said the first check does not give a true indication of the total the city will receive this year since it includes only those payments made up to April 15.

The city received a check of $326,820 for its first check, compared with $233,035 at this time last year. But its total last year came to $518,718 when $600,000 had been budgeted, based on the experience of former years.

This year the city has $560,000 budgeted. The city has no way of knowing just how much will be received in the second check which usually comes in August.

Almost half of the $93,000 additional received this year was from late payments made in 1938 which would have gone to the 1938 apportionment. Some of this also was from adjustments where the income tax refund had been erroneously credited to another city or township.

Neenah Youth Loses License In Both Twin City Courts

Neenah — Donald H. Peterson, 18, 717 Cedar street, had his license revoked for 90 days by Police Justice E. P. Arpin this morning after he pleaded guilty of driving faster than was prudent and reasonable.

He also pleaded guilty before Police Justice Arthur J. Ales of Menasha this morning for failing to stop for the arterial at Nicolet boulevard and Naymut streets and his license was suspended for 30 days in the Menasha court.

He was arrested in Menasha at 10 p. m. Saturday after being pursued by a Menasha squad car. He drove into a driveway to avoid the police and the occupants of the car all got out of sight, police said.

An hour later he was arrested in Neenah after he skidded about 170 feet in loose gravel and hit a parked car owned by Samuel J. Budowle, 223 Alcott drive, and parked on Alcott drive.

Father of Menasha Man Dies at Elgin

Menasha — E. Walter Biggers, 76, Elgin, Ill., father of Hayward Biggers, 265 Cleveland street, director of sales service for the George Banta company, died Sunday at Elgin. Funeral services will be at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Bergan Memorial chapel at Elgin with the Rev. Dr. C. C. Rogers, pastor of the First Methodist church there, in charge.

Biggers had been employed as a salesman for Advance Paper company, Elgin, for 20 years. Survivors, in addition to the son in Menasha, are the widow; another son, Gerald M., Elgin, and five grandchildren.

Honored by the Wisconsin Chamber of Commerce and her fellow teachers at Neenah High school Monday was Miss Margaret Griffiths, right, dean of girls at the high school. A certificate of merit from the State Chamber of Commerce for having been nominated for the outstanding state teacher of the year award was presented by Supt. of Schools Harold B. Mennes and she was given a congratulatory cake at an after-school reception.

Disorderly Conduct Brings $20 Fine

Waupaca — John O'Laughlin, 18, 1230 Ontario street, Oshkosh, was fined $20 Monday when he pleaded guilty of disorderly conduct in the town of Farmington.

He was arrested Saturday by a sheriff's deputy.

hollering' about damage to the Memorial building and parks.

The recreation director said next year he plans to limit "Blue Inn" dances at the building only to Menasha and Neenah residents. Outsiders, he believes, have caused much park and Memorial building damage.

"Blue Inn" dances, sometimes attracting up to 800 teenagers, are "hard to police," he said, "but most of the damage is not malicious. But those who are thrown out for coming in smelling of beer are apt to raise hob outside."

Wages No Deterrent

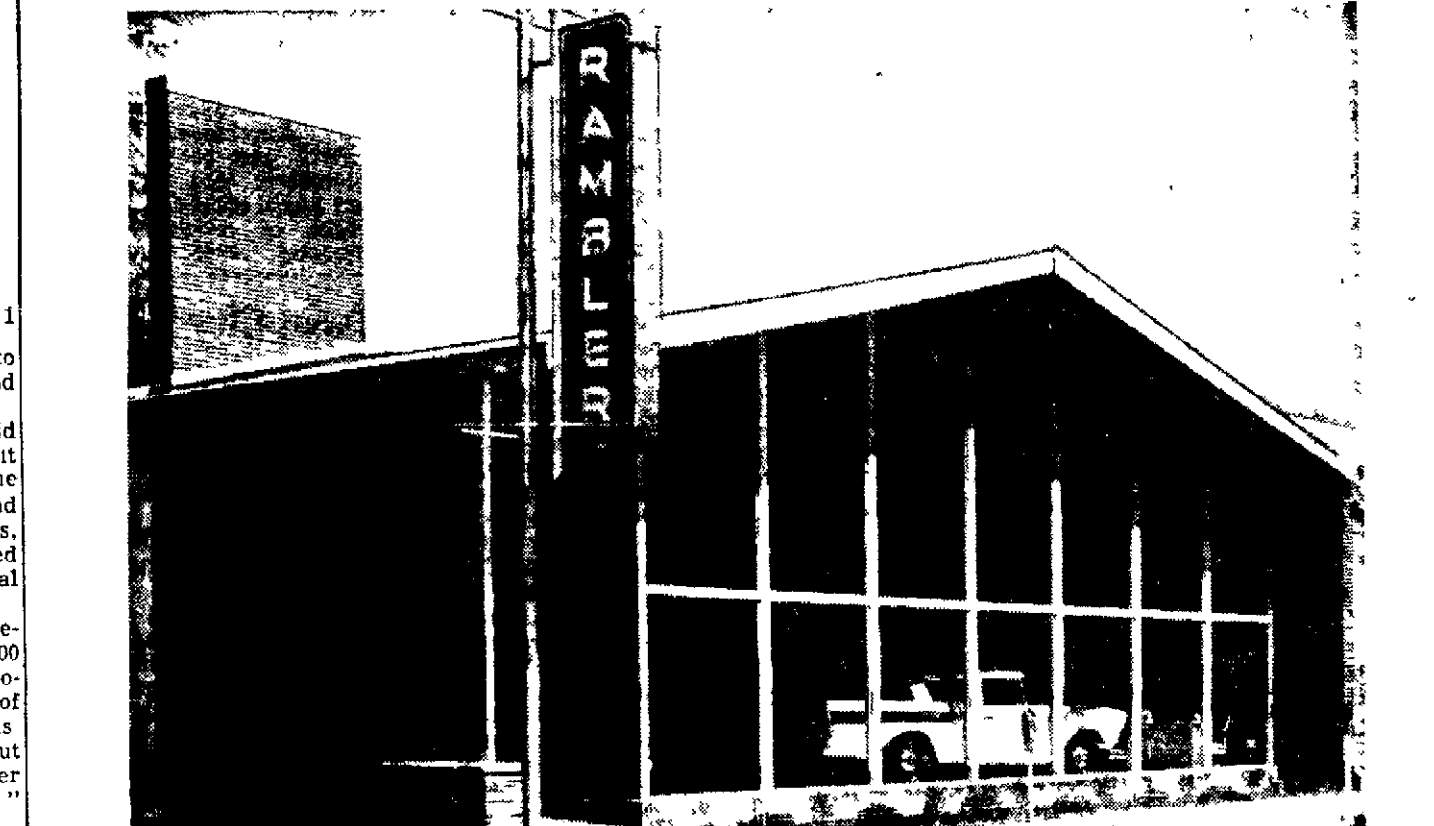

Kargus thought one man might be able to clean the Memorial building in a half-day's time. He thought finding one man able to handle the Memorial building upkeep, equipment and supervision might be difficult.

The mayor commented that Menasha's employees are paid better than any other city in the Fox River valley, and wages should not be a deterrent to getting a good man for the job.

Mayor Quips

Robert Schwartz, a park commissioner, asked the board members to "leave the decision in the mayor's hands if we are taken off the board let us be big enough to accept the decision and not use it to start more bickering. If we are no longer on the board let's not bear any malice toward the mayor."

DuCharme quipped "If the mayor has no more luck in appointing a park and recreation board than he has had in

Deanery Sets Family Hour With Christ

May 31 Outdoor Gathering to be At Fairgrounds

Oshkosh — "Unity of all men in Christ" is the theme of the May 31 Oshkosh Holy Name society deanery public family hour with Christ, to be held on the Winnebago county fairgrounds.

The outdoor service will begin at 8:15 p.m., preceded by a 30-minute organ concert by Victor Thies, Oshkosh.

The deanery includes Holy Name societies from 19 Catholic churches in the area.

An altar to be constructed on the platform across from the grandstand will be decorated in keeping with the theme of the family hour.

The goal is cooperation among all men of different racial, cultural, social, economic, educational and political backgrounds.

Human effort toward this end is "vitally necessary, but the divine wisdom, direction and guidance of Christ are fundamental," officials of the family hour have said.

To achieve the goal, cooperation of all men and their governments, and especially prayer, are needed.

To depict the diverse backgrounds, Oshkosh residents will take part in a procession that will precede the hour of services.

The main part will consist of an address, consecration and dedication of the human race in a prayer to be recited by the assembly and benediction of the blessed sacrament.

Catholic parishes from Neenah, Menasha, Oshkosh, Omro, Winneconne, Poygan, Redgranite, Wautoma and Plainfield make up the Oshkosh deanery.

Classrooms, New Convent Needs Shown

St. Patrick Parish Members Hear of Proposed Projects

Menasha — St. Patrick Catholic parish will need four new school classrooms and a new convent in the near future and a new rectory in about 10 years.

Members of the parish were informed of these needs Sunday at a parish meeting, also called for naming a new trustee — J. D. Raiche — to replace C. A. Peerenboom, who resigned on account of health and the need to curtail activities. He had served 20 years.

Plans for the school addition and convent are "still in the talking stage," said Trustee Milton Rimmel, who added that the form or architecture and an architect may be decided by the end of 1959.

Sunday's meeting was "to get the reaction of the congregation" on the projects. Building, he said, may not be undertaken for a few years.

Debt on the 1953 remodeling of the church will have been retired by the end of this year at the present rate of repayment.

Enrollment increases and the use of basement rooms for classes (prohibited by state law) are the two reasons the parish must have new classrooms, said Rimmel.

The convent is an old frame structure, becoming difficult to maintain, as is the rectory. Rimmel said the trustees will begin securing cost estimates and plans for the two projects.

News & Views of Twin City Business

Becher Electric Company, 103 Main street, Menasha, is an authorized dealer in Menasha for Emerson television, stereophonic hi-fi phonographs and transistor radios. Here are three of the quality Emerson products. Upper left is a full-power transformer table TV, top is a portable stereophonic hi-fi set and left is a stereophonic hi-fi portable phonoradio. Area people are invited by owner Elmer Becher to stop in this week and inspect the new Emerson line.

Gibson Co., Inc., 132 Main Street, Menasha, is displaying the 1959 line of the stunning new Buicks. There are 17 new models. Sleek and low describes Buick's styling for 1959. The model shown is the luxurious two-door Electra hardtop which measures less than 55 inches in height yet retains approximately the same headroom at last year's Buick. The "delta-wing" styling of the rear fenders that flare out to a point, and twin headlights that are set on an angle give the new Buick a look that is light & jaunty. Compound windshields that curve back into the roof and eliminate wind noise are a feature on all 1959 Buicks. The Electra is powered by a 401-cubic inch V-8 engine with 10.5-to-1 compression ratio. Twin turbine Dynaflo and power steering are standard on all models in the Electra series. Area people are invited to stop in this week and see the new Buick at the Gibson showrooms, 132 Main, Menasha. Gibson's Menasha used car lot is located at 905 Racine street.

Brain Twisters

BY DON DOUGLAS

Strange Change
Mr. Twister purchased an item in a store for $2.23, and gave the clerk a $20.00 bill. The clerk apologized, and stated that he was unable to change this bill. He then asked cent first syllable. "He was Mr. Twister whether he might awakened by certain stertor not have a larger bill, forious sounds emanating from which he could certainly give, the adjoining room."

him the correct change. How do you explain this apparent contradiction?

Answer
The clerk might have had two $20.00 bills and $7.77 in change, and could thus have made change for a $50.00 bill.

Lesson in English

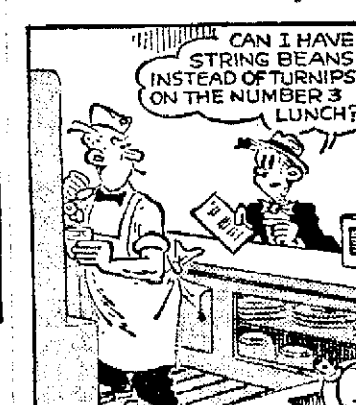

BY W. L. GORDON

Words often misused: Do not say, "They would not have seen him had they have gone." Omit the second "have." Say, "had they gone."

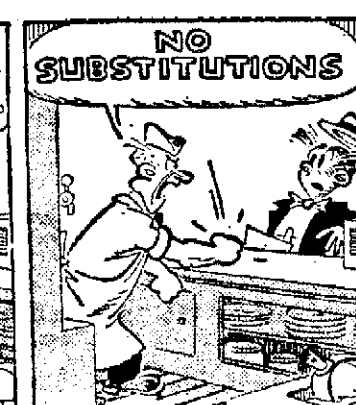

Often mispronounced: Emetic. Pronounce eh-met-ick, accent on second syllable.
Often misspelled: Portentous; observe the "ious." Pre-tentious; observe the "ious."
Synonyms: Posterity, progeny, children, heirs, offspring, descendants.
Word study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day.

Today's word: stertorous, characterized by a deep snoring; hoarsely breathing. (Ac-change this bill. He then asked cent first syllable). "He was Mr. Twister whether he might awakened by certain stertor not have a larger bill, forious sounds emanating from which he could certainly give, the adjoining room."

Young Hobby Club Imitation Walkie-Talkie Can Provide Hours of Fun

BY CAPPY DICK

A clever boy or girl can make an imitation walkie-talkie and have fun letting friends "broadcast" over it. All that is needed is a fairly large wooden or cardboard box, a piece of old garden hose, a square of window screen, a tin funnel and some rope or leather straps to hold the contraption on the operator's shoulders as he walks around looking for friends who want to do some broadcasting.

Friends can broadcast over walkie-talkie.

The device is easily made. Figure 1 shows the box. The open side of it should be cut, side of the hose. To make the next to the operator's snout of the funnel fit tight-back, in the other side a hole is cut into the end of the hose it should be cut and fitted with a cap that can be wrapped with several turns of cloth.

The way to put the shoulder strap in place is shown by next the garden hose through the dotted lines in Figure 4. A small, round hole in the piece of hose should be cut. To keep it from slipping long enough to be held in out, drive a long nail through front of the operator and up it inside the box, allowing it to the lips of anyone who is to extend at each side of the broadcasting.

Hiney's Pinch Single Gives Foxes 5-3 Win Over Soos

Bert Guenther Scores His Initial Goodland Field Victory With 9th-Inning Help From Castellanos

BY JOHN L. FAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

As a batter, Fox Cities Manager Jack McKeon is averaging only .118 against 3 - I league pitching. But, in the masterminding league, the "Little Bulldog" hit 1,000 here Monday night.

Calling the shots from the bench, McKeon sent up "Mike" Hiney as a pinch batter for catcher Wayne Leneave with the score tied, the bases loaded and one out in the eighth inning. Hiney delivered a 2-run single that spelled a 5-3 victory over Sioux City.

In the ninth, with the tying runs on base and only one out, McKeon strategized again—this time in the pitching department. He replaced starter Bert Guenther with Al Castellanos, and the portside preserved the decision, finishing with a 2-strikeout flourish.

Mitchell To Hurt

In opening one of their two longest home stands (nine days) of the season on the right foot, the Foxes achieved a modest 2 - game winning streak for the third time this season. Tonight, they shoot for a season's high of three with Gary Mitchell getting his first start of the year against the Soos' Dennis Schmitt.

The hard-throwing Guenther, who had lost his last two outings despite allowing a total of only one earned run, finally got over the hump. He won at Goodland field for the first time in his Foxes' career (covering parts of two seasons).

For many a trying moment, it looked as if the jinx were still keeping Guenther company. For example, there was the fourth inning, in which the Foxes produced four singles but failed to score.

Hiney's pinch blow put Guenther in a good spot, but the Soos kicked up a ruckus in the ninth and kept the outcome in doubt.

Redlegs Hand Dodgers Fifth Straight Loss

Pinson, Robinson Break Deadlock In 8th Inning

By The Associated Press

The Los Angeles Dodgers plunged to their fifth straight defeat Monday night, losing to Cincinnati, 9-7. That left them in a fourth-place tie with Chicago.

In the only other National league game scheduled, Milwaukee downed San Francisco, 4-2.

Beat Labine

The Dodgers blew a 5-0 lead against the Reds, who tied it with homers by Johnny Temple and Gus Bell in a 3-run fifth and then beat reliever Clem Labine (1-5) in the eighth on Vada Pinson's 2-run double and Frank Robinson's single.

Orlando Pena (2-1) was the winner, relieving Bob Mabe in the second and then blanking the Dodgers on three hits before giving up single runs in the eighth and ninth. Ron Fairly, who drove in three runs, homered in the ninth for Los Angeles.

Pitts, Besmanoff Score Convincing Victories

Orville TKOs Jimmy Welch in Seventh; Billy Posts Unanimous Decision Over Al Williams

Milwaukee—P—A couple of round, Pitts weighed 177½, once-promising fighters aimed their sights higher today after convincing victories following periods of rugged training.

Heavyweight Billy Besmanoff, the German native now off of Milwaukee, former National Golden Gloves champion, managed to University of Wisconsin light heavyweight collegiate star, round when he landed several turned in favorable performance Monday night with triumphs in scheduled 10-round bouts before a crowd of 2,045 at the Auditorium.

Little Trouble

Besmanoff, weighing in at 201 for a 24-pound advantage, battered Indian Al Williams aggressive tactics and when of Oklahoma City for a unanimous decision.

Pitts had little trouble after shaking off the rust of nearly a year's inactivity before stopping Jimmy Welch of Columbus, in 2:15 of the seventh round.

Besmanoff, soundly beaten by Donnie Riceman and Zora Folly in his last outings, staggered Williams several times, dropping him for a count at the bell in the first round. However, the Indian battler, a former National Golden Gloves champion, managed to get going about the fourth round when he landed several left jabs, followed by stiff punches in the sixth and seventh rounds.

In the sixth Pitts knocked out Welch's mouthpiece and opened up a cut over the Ohio veteran's eye.

In the seventh Welch slipped to the deck under Pitts' aggressive tactics and when the eye cut reopened the referee stepped in to halt the action.

East DePere '9' Ousts Ghosts From Tourney

Shiocton High Tops Freedom In 5-3 Upset

Shiocton District

Wednesday Night's Game: Freedom vs. East DePere (7:30).

Monday's Results: Shiocton 5, Freedom 3, East DePere 3, Kaukauna 8.

Shiocton — Shiocton, which finished well down the list in the Little Nine conference Western division standings, upset the league's Eastern division titlist, Freedom, 5-3, here Monday night in WIAA district baseball action.

Earlier, East DePere had blanked Mid-Eastern conference power Kaukauna, 5-0, on a 2-hitter by left-hander Bob Roffers.

Three in First

Shiocton's southpaw Dick Conradt set down Freedom on three hits, one more than the Chiefs could accumulate off two Irish hurlers—Vern Bowers and John Williamson.

Conradt struck out 13 and walked eight. Bowers pitched the first 3 and 2-3 innings, giving up all five runs on one hit and two walks before a sore arm caused his dismissal. Williamson yielded one hit and four walks the rest of the way.

The Chiefs scored three runs in the first on one hit. With two out Francis Planert Clintonville—It was Monday, the 18th yesterday, but Bowler high school pitcher Darwin Zeinert could have sworn it was Friday, the 13th.

The left-handed Zeinert pitched a no-hit game against Gresham in the Clintonville district tournament — but lost.

Zeinert's effort was rained in the second inning when Lenwood Christ reached first on an error, stole second, took third on the catcher's bad throw and scored on a wild pitch.

Winner Ken Schultz, a right-hander, scattered three hits. He struck out nine and walked none. Zeinert fanned six and walked two in the 7-inning game.

In this afternoon's tourney game, Clintonville was to meet Shawano.

Milwaukee's Warren Spahn slides home safely after scoring from second on Eddie Mathews' single to left during the sixth inning of Monday's game in San Francisco. The catcher is Bob Schmidt. Spahn earned his fifth victory of the season, 4-2.

Braves Hold NL's Top Lead of Year After Fifth Straight Win

Spahn Captures Fifth, 5 to 4, Over Giants

By the Associated Press

First place is a kiss of death in the National league, except for the Milwaukee Braves—the only club that hasn't found the lead a ticket to fourth place.

In the first week of play, San Francisco broke on top—then lost five of eight and skidded to fourth. Milwaukee was on top for the next two weeks, gave way momentarily as Los Angeles moved in, then returned while the Dodgers dropped four of five and slipped to fourth.

Bunning Has Another Big Day at Fenway

Jim Slaps 4 Hits, Pitches Fourth Successive Win

Boston — It's almost frightening to think what might happen if Jim Bunning, a slim, right-handed pitcher for Detroit, played in Fenway park every day.

On July 20, 1958, for example, he threw a no-hitter against Boston at Fenway. His lifetime record against the Red Sox is 10-5.

But it's doubtful that he ever turned in a better day at Fenway than he did Monday.

Bunning had a 4-for-4 hitting performance, including a home run and a 420-foot triple, drove in five runs and spaced seven hits in heading a 14-2 assault on the down-trodden Red Sox.

Treasures Bat Mark

"It's the best day I ever had," he beamed later. "I once went 3-for-3, but never 4-for-4."

Like many pitchers, Bunning treasures his batting average almost as much as his win-loss record, which now stands at 4-3 for the year. Monday's performance hiked his batting mark from .118 to .286.

Bunning pitched his fourth straight victory and fifth consecutive complete game.

The Tigers swung for 16 hits against loser Frank Sullivan (1-3) and three relievers. Ten of the hits were for extra bases, with Al Kaline, Charlie Maxwell and Frank Bolling also hitting homers.

Don Buddin homered for the Red Sox, who have lost six of their last seven.

Three New Players Will Join Foxes

The Fox Cities Foxes have three new players on the way, Business Manager Bob Willis reports.

The Foxes dipped into the Detroit farm system for the trio, who played in the Class C Pioneer league with Idaho Falls in 1958.

Outfielder Jake Wood, a fast prospect who hit .308 and drove in 70 runs, is on option from Knoxville, of the Class A Sally league. Outfielder Jim Spychalski, who hit .271 with 64 RBIs, is an option from Durham, of the Class B Carolina league.

The Foxes bought the contract of catcher-outfielder Frank Franchi, a .352 hitter last year with 109 RBIs.

Pitcher Hector Maestri, who had been expected to join the team on the road last week, didn't join the roster officially until yesterday. He is expected to see action during the current home stand.

Chuter '9' Avenges Loss to Zephyrs

Ed Hammen Hits 3-Run Homer As Vanden Heuvel Wins, 9-2

Little Chute—St. John High school exploded for seven runs in the fourth inning to register a 9-2 victory over Menasha St. Mary here Monday afternoon.

The win was the third in a row for the Dutchmen and it avenged an earlier loss to the Zephyrs.

Long Homer

Ed Hammen paced the uprising in the fourth with a long homer with two mates aboard. Hammen's blow sailed far over the center fielder's head and came on the first pitch from Steger who had relieved starter Tom Baltazor.

The Chuters collected six hits in the big inning, which also included a walk and an error.

St. Mary took an early lead by counting a run in the first inning. Reuckl singled, took second on an infield out and scored when Schriver singled.

The Zephyrs added another tally in the third when Batley singled, Schriver and Martin

FVL Track Team Closes Season Here

The Fox Valley Lutheran High school track team closes its season against Winnebago Lutheran, Fond du Lac, at 3 p.m. Thursday on the Lawrence college track.

Last Saturday, FVL placed fourth in the Lutheran Invitational meet in Milwaukee—only four points behind second place Racine Lutheran. Milwaukee Racine was the easy first-place winner.

The Foxes' relay 880-yard relay team of "Skip" Roloff, Bob Luebke, Ron Schmidt and Ron Olm placed second.

Schmidt tied for second in the 40-yard dash and Buss tied for second in the pole vault.

Others of Coach Andrew Madison's team who placed as high as third were Olm, in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes, and Lowell Kading in the 880 and Darrell Mindel, high hurdles.

Tijuana, Mexico—Bobby Cervantes, 126, La Laguna, Mexico, outpointed Pete Kawala, 127, Canada, 10.

New York Starts Hearing on Robinson Case

Commission Will Decide if 'Sugar' Remains Champ

BY JACK HAND

New York—This is all very complicated. You see, "Sugar" Ray Robinson still is world middleweight champion in New York state. But he wants to fight Carmen Basilio in Pennsylvania. That is National Boxing Assn. territory where Robinson no longer is champ.

In order to discover if Robinson has complied with a court order to "enter into terms of agreement to defend against Basilio," the New York State Athletic Commission is conducting a hearing. After the hearing, it will decide whether Robinson still is champ.

Robinson claims he signed May 12 (three days before the court and commission deadline) to fight Basilio in Philadelphia, Sept. 21. Everybody admits Basilio has not signed. Now, who gets called? Basilio.

The hearing opened Monday with Sugar Ray watching moodily behind dark glasses. He was 38 minutes late but he showed up.

Marvin Machat, Robinson's attorney, paraded various witnesses before the commission. Al Lein, a member of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, said he had approved the one-sided contract for the Philadelphia fight.

Harold Salkind, Philadelphia commissioner of registration, said he had been "helping a friend (Promoter Sam Rose) who is in the hospital." He said he had tried to reach Basilio and his managers for several days and finally on Friday told Johnny DeJohn, a co-manager, that Rose was ready to post $200,000 good faith money.

A crisp $225,000 certified check was produced by Irving Kahn, president of a closed circuit television company (TelePromTear). He said this was a minimum guarantee for Basilio. Kahn expects bined .340 average through the 11 games.

Little Luis Aparicio is low man with a .279 average, but leads the regulars with 13 runs scored. Sherm Lollar is the big percentage hitter (.425), with "Bubba" Phillips next (.400). Earl Torgeson is the top run producer, with 11, two more than Lollar.

And then there's Wynn. The 39-year-old right-hander has won three in a row during the spurt and became the first to win six this season in the AL while packing away his 25th career victory. He walked four, struck out four and was working on his third shutout until Reno Bertoia hit a two-run homer in the sixth.

Three in First

The Sox counted three in the first inning against Chuck Stobbs (1-4), scoring on Jim Landis' sacrifice fly, a double by Del Ennis and the first of two RBI singles by Torgeson. Lollar, who homered and doubled, drove in two runs along with Torgy and Landis, who cashed another sacrifice fly. Al Smith also homered for the Sox, who had a dozen hits.

The Indians, whose only other whitewash this season was by Wynn, got all their hits off Brown (1-1). They finally got rid of the 34-year-old right-hander, making his second start, in the eighth, when Loes moved in and retired "Rocky" Colavito on a fly with two on and two out. Loes hung up his fifth save with the hitless mop-up.

The Orioles, two games behind in third, got the run they needed in the third when Don Ferrarese (3-2) forced it in with two walks.

Young Players Lead U. S. Open Qualifiers

The youth movement in the start of the year, shared by Gardner Dickinson and Ewing Pomeroy, a 45-year-old home pro from Atlanta.

In these preliminary try-outs, a total of 2,333 golfers were shooting for 428 places. This includes tests today at Chicago and Des Moines.

The survivors plus 49 exempt players must attempt a second round of qualifying—the sectional eliminations—June 1. Twenty players, including the last five past champions are exempt all the way. Only 150 will go to the first tee June 11.

Jimmy Cotter, Lake Geneva Country club pro, shot 78-71-149 to take medalist honors in the Wisconsin section qualifying for the Open. Play was held at the rugged Milwaukee Country club course.

Amateurs Jack Allen and Wally Atwood of Madison, tied with 151s. The greatest name in golfing history appeared again on a scoreboard in national competition Monday.

The name: Robert Jones. The immortal Bobby's son, Robert Tyre Jones III, put the famous name in view again by qualifying in a district preliminary for the Open.

Just 30 years ago, Bobby won the Open at the Winged Foot club.

Young Jones, a 32-year-old bottling company executive from Pittsfield, Mass., says, "he's just another golfer who likes to play weekends."

He qualified Monday with a 149 on the par-72 Schuyler Meadows course outside Albany.

It was the first time he's qualified in Open competition after trying "a couple of times before in the past five years."

Des Moines Wins, 10-8, Over Bluejays

By The Associated Press

Des Moines moved up to second place and to within a half game of league-leading Lincoln in a Three-I league schedule abbreviated because of rain Monday.

The Demons used a 6-run rally in the sixth inning to defeat Green Bay, 10-8. In the only other game played, Fox Cities topped Sioux City, 5-3.

Reg Heavener featured Des Moines' big inning at Green Bay with a 3-run homer. Green Bay, which got away to a 5-0 lead, outthit the Demons by 12-7.

Board Member Defends Schools

Good Design, Color Use Gives
'Lavish' Look, Jesse Says

"The board of education complained that we were does not build lavish schools. They just look lavish," Frank Lin C. Jesse, member of the board, told Lions club members Monday afternoon.

Jesse answered questions frequently asked by citizens about the schools, and defended school board policies. "They look lavish because they're the biggest buildings in town," he claimed. "They're well designed and we liberally use color. This adds greatly to their beauty, but very little to cost."

He said comparing old schools and their costs and designs to new schools is like comparing a 1920 model car to a 1950 model. "In James Madison school we used cement block, brick veneer, concrete floors, asphalt tile and inexpensive ceilings. In some rooms, we didn't even use ceilings," he said.

"One lady called me and building schools too expensively. I asked her how we could reduce costs. She thought and thought and suggested that we give up seeding lawns and planting shrubbery."

He explained the school system does not have a standard pattern for buildings because each school must be designed for a specific site and specific purposes. Designs go out of date quickly, he added.

Jesse encouraged citizens to attend school board meetings and ask questions. "You'll find our meetings quite an experience," he said.

2-Story Schools

He also encouraged citizens to scrutinize schools more closely. The board received a complaint that it authorized too many 1-story schools. The Madison school five times a day and couldn't understand why the city had erected a 1-story school on the site.

"We told him he'd better drive by six times a day, because Jefferson is 2-story school," Jesse said. Richmond and Foster schools are the only 1-story public schools in the city.

Jesse explained the board wants to build a new junior high school on the northwest side of Appleton "because nothing would be saved in adding to Roosevelt school." The Roosevelt site is inadequate, special facilities too small and transportation problems too great, he said.

Council Relations

When asked if board and city council relations were friendly, Jesse answered:

"They're nice guys as individuals, and as a rule we get along well. But when they become concerned with schools, we get provoked."

He said the board was elected to run the schools and has final jurisdiction in all matters except financial matters. The board only requests things the system needs, he said. Additions like the proposed curriculum coordinator "are none of the council's business."

School budgets increase not because of city council or school board blunders, Jesse said, but because of increasing population. "The children we want in the new junior high school already are on the streets."

Appleton schools are among the least expensive in the state, he said. Per pupil costs are 14th low for cities of comparable size, and construction costs are lowest in the state, he said.

David Derfus New President Of MacDowell

Chorus to Make
Final Appearance
Of '59 Sunday

David Derfus, Menasha, was elected president of the Appleton MacDowell Male chorus at the organization's annual dinner and business meeting Monday at the Menasha hotel.

Other officers named are Fred Froehlich, vice president; Robert Krause, recording secretary; Kenneth Nichols, music secretary; Clarence DeWilt, treasurer; and Roland Abitz and Greg Hartjes, directors. DeWilt is from Kimberly. The others live in Appleton.

Derfus succeeds Clarence DeBruin, Kaukauna, who automatically becomes state governor for the next season.

Annual reports were given by retiring officers. Edward F. Zordel, Appleton conductor, and Gordon Kotkosky, Kimberly, former conductor, gave short talks on chorus activity.

Plans were made for the annual summer conference of the Wisconsin Association of Male Chorus at Rhineland on June 13 and 14. Arrangements will be made there for the 1960 association sing.

MacDowell will make its final appearance of the 1959 season Sunday when it participates in the dedication of First English Lutheran church parish hall. The chorus uses the church fellowship hall for rehearsals.

Former Appleton Woman Elected To State Office

A former Appleton woman has been elected president of the Wisconsin Personnel and Guidance association and the dean of girls at Appleton High school was named treasurer.

Miss Eleanor Smith, dean of girls at Memorial High school, Beloit, is president. She is a graduate of Lawrence college who received a master's degree from the University of Wisconsin. She taught at Marion and Weyauwega before moving to Beloit in 1951.

Miss Annabelle Wolf, Appleton High School dean of girls, was named treasurer.

Other officers are Dr. Nick J. Topetetz, associate professor of education at Marquette university, secretary; and Richard W. Winfield, state supervisor of the state board of vocational and adult education, vice president.

Woman Killed in Boat Collision

Kansasville —A 67-year-old Chicago woman was killed Sunday in the collision of two boats in Eagle lake.

Mrs. Ella Kalish was the victim. Coroner Bernard Evenson said she died of the injuries suffered when struck by the propeller of a power boat.

Authorities said the power boat, operated by Mrs. John Zinnen of Kansasville, pushed the stern of the other boat under water.

Mrs. Angela Szurgot, 47, the victim's daughter, and Ronald Kalish, 15, Mrs. Kalish's grandson, also of Chicago, and Mrs. Zinnen were treated for shock.

Mrs. Kalish, her daughter and grandson were fishing at the time of the accident.

AHS Art Show Scheduled Wednesday

Exhibits of different types of art and demonstrations of creating art pieces will be featured at the second annual art show at Appleton High school Wednesday night. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Before demonstrations and viewing exhibits in the third floor art rooms and art corridor, a talk will be given in the auditorium by Prof. Frederick M. Logan, chairman of the department of art and art education at the University of Wisconsin. He will speak on the place of arts in this age of science.

Students in the senior art class have been working all week putting up the exhibit, including oil paintings, sketches, mobiles, ceramics, jewelry, wood blocks, wood carvings and pastel paintings. The committee in charge of hanging the pictures for the exhibit are Jim McKahan, Dan Max, Sue Zeiss, Penny Greiner and Gwen Wiprud. Other committees working for the art show and open house are the invitation committee, Penny Greiner and Ann Elliott; the sign committee, Sue Zeiss and Alja Zempura; refreshment, Carolyn Chapman, Bette Hollander and Joyce Knuppe; and clean-up, Penny Greiner and Barbara Thielman.

Alley Eliminated in Riverside Cemetery

The city planning commission has agreed to eliminate provision for a future alley through Riverside cemetery.

The official city map, Appleton Riverside Cemetery association reported, shows the alley extending from Cemetery street west 150 feet on the south side of E. Wisconsin avenue.

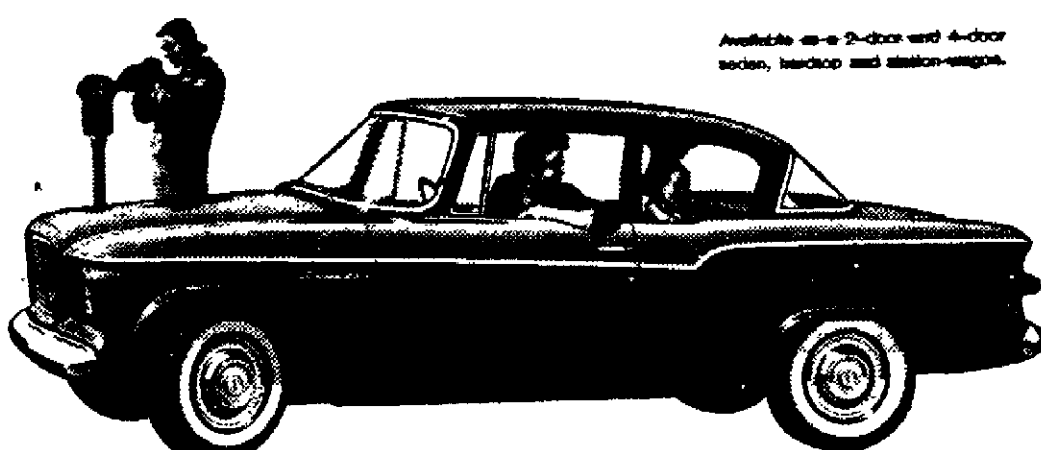

Vesper Chamberlin To be on Faculty at Dancing Convention

Mrs. Vesper Chamberlin will be on the faculty of the Dancing Masters of America convention July 28 through Aug. 6 at the Shorham hotel, Washington, D.C. Mrs. Chamberlin will teach baton, ballroom and tap dancing and will take 15 Appleton girls with her to demonstrate dances. This is her seventh year of teaching at the national convention.
